BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1986

SINGLE COPY, 25 CENTS

THREE SECTIONS, 30 PAGES

A MOTHER'S CONCERN is reflected in the face of Diani Greer of Bay St. Louis as she comforts her son Raymond (Rusty) Greer who was injured about 6 p.m. Tuesday in a one-vehicle accident on Sube Street off Washington Street in Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Greer arrived at the scene shortly after the accident occurred and assisted Mobile Medic ambulance personnel and Bay St.

Louis firemen after her son was removed from his truck which landed on its side in a Sube Street drainage ditch. Greer was treated for trauma to the chest and abdomen and released in good condition Wednesday, according to Hancock General Hospital spokesman Mary Perkins. (Echo staff photo by Edgar Perez)

Waveland's taxes, utility rates remain unchanged

BY DENA BISNETTE

Waveland's taxes will not be increased for the 1986-87 fiscal year, which begins Oct. 1. The Waveland Board of Aldermen voted Tuesday to continue the city millage at its present rate, 13.5.

The vote was unanimously approved by Ward Two Alderman Bob Hubbard, Ward Three Alderman Louis Smolensky and Ward Four Alderman Herman Yarborough. Ward One Alderman Barbara Rapold was absent.

A mill raises about $18,000 in revenue for the city at current valuation, Mayor John Longo Jr. said.

The millage is broken down into 8.5 mills for the general fund, 1.1 for recreation, .8 for the city library, .5 for the library construction fund, two for state loan retirement and .6 for bonds and interest.

In addition to no change in taxes, there will be no change in utility rates for water, sewerage and gas. Garbage collection will remain a free service during 1986-87, Longo said.

"We just ask that people be considerate about these services and cooperate as much as possible so we can keep these services at the same rates," the mayor said.

"What we're asking is that residents do things like packaging garbage properly rather than just tossing it out into the street. That sort of thing helps the city keep costs down," he added.

In addition to approving the millage, the board approved the amended budget for the current fiscal year and the proposed budget for 1986-87.

The original budget for 1985-86 included a total of $1,630,039 in the general fund but was amended to $1,585,843.

The general fund for the proposed budget totals $1,662,310, with most of the increase consisting of raises for city personnel and addition of personnel to the police and fire departments.

The budgets also contain several special funds.

Amended budget totals for the special funds include $41,353 for the city library; $408,000 for sewerage; $30,617 for recreation; $39,647 for state loan retirements; $23,310 for bonds and interest; and $1,118,010 for water and gas.

1986-87 proposed budget totals for the special funds include $45,354 for the city library; $451,702 for sewerage; $32,000 for recreation; $49,647 for state loan retirements; and $1,162,890 for water and gas.

The revenue sharing fund, which last year had total revenues and expenditures of $38,341, has been discontinued.

The board's next regular meeting will be Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Commission to select engineer for new plant at Port Bienville

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission is expected to select an engineer today to prepare plans and specifications for a new building at Port Bienville Industrial Park in Pearlinton.

The commission voted Monday to have proposals for a 10,000 square foot plant submitted for consideration.

When completed the building is to be sold on a lease purchase plan to Con-Tech Power Systems Inc.

Con-Tech President Harold Thibodeaux reported last week negotiations were underway with the commission to secure a 2.5 acre site in the industrial park.

Including engineering and land costs, the building is expected to cost $160,000-$170,000.

Port Director James DeBlanc said Con-Tech expects to employ 10-15 persons at first and 25-30 when fully operational.

Con-Tech has a tremendous market for the marine switch panels they manufacture, he said.

These panels may be used in new or existing tugs, ships and barges, DeBlanc added.

Commission President Ronald Aragues said Con-Tech is urgently seeking a place to produce these switch panels and is currently having to turn work down.

Due to the urgency, the board sought an opinion from the attorney general about the legality of selling the land to Con-Tech who would build the plant, then repurchasing the site and building and selling it back to Con-Tech on a lease-purchase plan.

When no decision was available from the attorney general for Monday's meeting the commission voted to go another direction and secure an engineer to design the building.

Aragues said this process would add several thousand dollars to the cost of the building and delay construction by weeks.

Also at the meeting, DeBlanc announced his intention to resign as director effective Jan. 15, 1987.

The commission is expected to begin a search for a new director immediately.

In other business the commission voted to rescind a lease to Baldwin Aircraft for the use of Hangar B at Stennis International Airpark.

School board sets 20-day absence limit

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Hancock County School Board voted Tuesday to change the number of days allowed for excused absences for district students.

All five members of the board agreed that eight days as currently allowed in the student handbook is too few days.

Board members also said they had each received several telephone calls concerning the issue.

"A limit of eight days is just too rigid," Board Member George Ladner stated.

This will encourage students to return to school while they are still sick and many may have relapses and miss even more days, he added.

"This limit may also cause an increase in drop outs when students get too many absences and do not want to have to make them up on Saturdays or in summer school,"

Ladner said.

Board Member Tommy Shaw suggested the number be returned to 20 as was allowed last year.

The board unanimously voted in favor of the increase.

Shaw also noted that the handbook which set the number of days had never been approved by the board.

The handbook currently states "eight days may be excused for sickness, death in the family or absences while representing the school."

Absences in excess of the number allowed may be made up on designated Saturdays, holidays or after June 2, 1987 in summer school.

Students with more than 20 absences will have to make up days as stated.

Beginning last year the school district began a strict enforcement of absentee policies and several students with excessive absences were required to make up days.

This enforcement resulted in several students not being promoted to a higher grade even though they had passing grades.

Superintendent Terrell Randolph said last week that the district must improve the absentee rates to retain accreditation.

He also said that high absentee rates cost the district $200,000 a year in funding which is based on the average daily attendance.

Suspended sentence revoked, DUI charge results in jail term

Hancock County Justice Court Judge Barbara Frierson has revoked a suspended sentence granted to a Waveland man on one of six DUI charges he has faced and ordered him to serve nine months in the Hancock County Jail.

George W. Anderson Jr., 40, of 721 Old Spanish Trail had received a one-year sentence with nine months suspended after he pleaded guilty to driving-under-the-influence charge in March 1985.

That suspension was granted on the condition he receive no further DUI charges.

Following Anderson's conviction in July on another DUI charge, County Prosecuting Attorney John L. Genin filed a petition asking Frierson to revoke Anderson's suspended sentence.

In that case, Anderson was found guilty of driving under the influence in connection with an early morning head-on crash on Lower Bay Road in Hancock County on June 20.

Anderson reportedly was driving his pickup truck on the wrong side of the road and struck a car driven by Rodney J. Bodin of Biloxi.

Bodin was not injured, but Anderson suffered a fractured jaw.

As a result of that charge, Justice Court Judge Joseph Dobson sentenced Anderson to 12 days in the county jail and a three-month weekend jail sentence. He also revoked Anderson's driver's license and fined him $1,000.

In May 1985, Anderson was found innocent of manslaughter in a Circuit Court trial in connection with the death of Amanda B. Carter who died in a July 1982 accident on the Bay Bridge.

Anderson, who admitted firing the trial that he had been drinking, was driving a car that struck Carter's car.

She and her passenger, Mary Blanchette, were thrown from the car and Carter was run over by an oncoming vehicle.

The law under which Anderson was charged required evidence of "willful and wanton disregard for life" to obtain a conviction

District changes name to Bay-Waveland

BY DENA BISNETTE

The name of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District has been changed to Bay-Waveland School District.

The district's board voted to approve the change Monday.

According to Board President Betty Diboll, dropping the words "municipal separate" from the district's name has been mandated by the State Department of Education.

That mandate must be carried out by July 1987.

The Uniform School Law, which became effective in July, requires that the type of district be dropped from the name and only the geographical description retained.

Under that mandate, the district could have been renamed the Bay St. Louis School District.

However, Superintendent of Education Roger Oge recommended the change to Bay-Waveland as a means of more accurately describing the area served by the four schools included.

The vote approving the change was unanimous.

TURNABOUT IS FAIR PLAY—Bay-Waveland School District teachers occupied student desks last week at a writing workshop. Clay Manning, Gulfport School District Writing Reinforcement and Improvement Through Teacher Education coordinator, conducted the four-hour mini workshop for secondary English teachers. The WRITE program provides a systematic, developmental approach to teaching writing. Manning is an English teacher at Bayou View Junior High School. (Staff photo by Brenda Heathcock)

REAL VIEWS ON REAL ESTATE

IRA TO ISSUE RULING ON POINTS

Question: We are in the process of refinancing our home to take advantage of lower interest rates. The lender has told us that the points we will have to pay are not deductible on our federal income tax. Is this true? R.H., McComb

Answer: Dear R.Y.:

Recently the Internal Revenue Service announced that loan points incurred for refinancing are not deductible. As you would no doubt agree, the announcement has been met with consumer and congressional protest.

The IRS position is that points are only deductible on the purchase or improvement of a principal residence. According to the Internal Revenue Service, when you refinance, you are not purchasing or refinancing, so it fails the deductibility test.

Some members of Congress disagree. Consumers have contacted their representatives pointing out that the "dead equity," the difference in funds between the original loan and the refinancing, is often used to make improvements to the property and therefore the points should be deductible.

Representatives have introduced a bill which would add the word "refinance" to the conditions for deductibility.

According to mortgage banking groups in Washington, the issue is a popular one because it is so pro-consumer.

However, it is difficult to predict when Congress may act on the legislation. Meanwhile, IRS says its position will be to "carry out the language of the Internal Revenue Code" and the revenue ruling on points will reflect that.

Veterans face 'assessment' before receiving medical care

Congress enacted the law. The Veterans Administration established the regulations. Now, veterans who turn to the VA to take care of their health needs may face a means test to determine their eligibility for health care, according to the American Legion's 'Mississippi Legionnaire.'

Effective July 1, a means test is likely for many veterans who go to VA facilities, but who do not have a service-connected disability.

Under the law, which The American Legion vigorously opposed, non-service-connected disabled veterans must verify that their income is below a certain level. The VA will categorize veterans as one of three types or categories.

Category A veterans are not subject to an "eligibility assessment." (The term "means test" does not exist in VA vocabulary; it's an "eligibility assessment.")

Either through service-connected disability or through a number of other criteria, a veteran will be eligible for care as before the regulations were enacted.

Non-service-connected veterans with incomes of $15,000 or less, if single, or $18,000 or less, if married, plus $1,000 for each dependent, will also be eligible for care under this category.

In Category B are veterans who are non-service-connected disabled and whose incomes are above $15,000, but less than $20,000, if single, or between $18,000 and $25,000, if married, plus $1,000 for each dependent. In this category, the VA may provide care if space is available.

In the third category — Category C — are non-service-connected veterans whose income is above $20,000 (if single) and $25,000 (if married), plus $1,000 for each dependent.

A veteran in this category must agree to pay a deductible amount for his/her equal to what would be paid under Medicare (currently $492).

The VA may provide care if space is available.

Veterans in Category C who receive care will pay the cost of the care or the $492 deductible, whichever is less, for the first 90 days of care during any 365-day period. For each additional 90 days, veterans in this category will pay half of the Medicare deductible, with a limit of $1,476 for hospital care.

For nursing home care the entire deductible is paid each 90 days of care, and outpatient care will cost 20 percent of the VA outpatient billing rate (currently $80), or $16.

Total income under the eligibility guidelines includes Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), U.S. Civil Service retirement, railroad retirement, military retirement, unemployment compensation, total wages from all employers, interest and dividend income, workmen's compensation, black lung benefits, and any other gross income for the calendar year prior to application for VA care. The incomes of spouse and other dependents is also counted.

According to the VA, no proof of income beyond the VA form 10-107 will be required.

THE ANNAPOLIS CONVENTION

September 11-14, 1786

Editor's Note: Two hundred years ago this week, between Sept. 11 and Sept. 14, 1786, the decisive step was taken toward the writing of the United States Constitution. In 1785, a conference had been held at Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington, to discuss commerce and navigation on the Potomac River between Maryland and Virginia. The participants at the conference had recognized that their local problems were part of a broader national crisis, resulting from the lack of uniform regulation of commerce and navigation. Accordingly, they called for a convention of the states to consider the problems of trade and navigation.

The Annapolis Convention was that national convention. Five states were represented: New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. The delegates included some of the leading American statesmen, including Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Dickinson.

The delegates met for only four days, agreeing that the commercial problems of the country were due largely to the weakness of the national government under the articles of confederation. They further agreed that a more representative national convention was required, at which proposals for amending the Articles could be discussed. When that convention, the Federal Convention of 1787, met the following summer in Philadelphia, it framed the Constitution that (with only 26 subsequent amendments) provides our frame of government today.

What follows is essentially the complete text of the final report of the Annapolis Convention. All that has been omitted is a section that reported the scope of negotiating authority each of the five represented states had granted to its delegates.

To the Honorable, the Legislatures of Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, the commissioners from the said states, respectively, assembled at Annapolis, humbly beg leave to report:

That, pursuant to their several appointments, they met at Annapolis in the state of Maryland on the 11th day of September instant and having proceeded to a communication of powers, they found that the states of New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia had, in substance and nearly in the same terms, authorized their respective commissioners.

That the express terms of the powers of your commissioners supposing a deputation from all the states, and having for object the trade and commerce of the United States, your commissioners did not conceive it advisable to proceed on the business of their mission under the circumstance of so partial and defective a representation.

Deeply impressed, however, with the magnitude and importance of the object confided to them on this occasion, your commissioners cannot forbear to indulge an expression of their earnest and unanimous wish that speedy measures be taken to effect a general meeting of the states in a future convention, for the same and such other purposes as the situation of public affairs may be found to require.

If, in expressing this wish, or in intimating any other sentiment, your commissioners should seem to exceed the strict bounds of their appointment, they entertain a full confidence that a conduct, dictated by an anxiety for the welfare of the United States, will not fail to receive an indulgent construction.

In this persuasion, your commissioners submit an opinion that the idea of extending the powers of their deputies to other objects than those of commerce, which has been adopted by the state of New Jersey, was an improvement on the original plan, and will deserve to be incorporated into that of a future convention.

They are the more naturally led to this conclusion as in the course of their reflections on the subject they have been induced to think that the power of regulating trade is of such comprehensive extent, and will enter so far into the general system of the federal government, that to give it efficacy and to obviate questions and doubts concerning its precise nature and limits may require a correspondent adjustment of other parts of the federal system.

That there are important defects in the system of the federal government is acknowledged by the acts of all those states which have concurred in the present meeting; that the defects, upon a closer examination, may be found greater and more numerous than even these acts imply is at least so far probable, from the embarrassments which characterize the present state of our national affairs, foreign and domestic, as may reasonably be supported to merit a deliberate and candid discussion, in some mode, which will unite the sentiments and councils of all the states. In the choice of the mode, your commissioners are of opinion that a convention of deputies from the different states, for the special and sole purpose of entering into this investigation and digesting a plan for supplying such defects as may be discovered to exist, will be entitled to a preference from considerations which will occur without being particularized.

Your commissioners decline an enumeration of those national circumstances on which their opinion respecting the propriety of a future convention, with more enlarged powers, is founded; as it would be a useless intrusion of facts and observations, most of which have been frequently the subject of public discussion, and none of which can have escaped the penetration of those to whom they would in this instance be addressed. They are, however, of a nature so serious as, in the view of your commissioners, to render the situation of the United States delicate and critical, calling for an exertion of the united virtue and wisdom of all the members of the Confederacy.

Under this impression, your commissioners, with the most respectful deference, beg leave to suggest their unanimous conviction that it may essentially tend to advance the interests of the Union if the states, by whom they have been respectively delegated, would themselves concur and use their endeavors to procure the concurrence of the other states in the appointment of commissioners, to meet at Philadelphia on the second Monday in May next, to take into consideration the situation of the United States, to devise such further provisions as shall appear to them necessary to render the Constitution of the federal government adequate to the exigencies of the Union; and to report such an act for that purpose to the United States in Congress assembled, as when agreed to by them, and afterward confirmed by the legislature of every state, will effectually provide for the same.

Though your commissioners could not with propriety address these observations and sentiments to any but the states they have the honor to represent, they have nevertheless concluded from motives of respect to transmit copies of this report to the United States in Congress assembled, and to the executives of the other states.

District's name change good move by school board

A good move was made by the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District's board on Monday in making a name change to the school system.

This is something which should have transpired many years ago, or as a matter of fact, the name should have been the Bay-Waveland Municipal Separate School District when the district was formed many years ago.

Interestingly enough is the fact the State Department of Education has mandated the dropping of the words 'municipal separate' from school district names by July 1987.

The use of Bay-Waveland really defines the area covered by the school's system.

The next matter which needs to be worked on is the selection of all board members in the same way.

There is no reason for one city's to be elected, while the other's are appointed.

School bus laws should be observed

Twice each school day an estimated 5,200 buses are on Mississippi's roads and highways transporting approximately 385,000 students to public schools.

Motorists are being urged by the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol to be especially cautious since this year's cargo will include kindergarten youngsters.

Leonard Cain, director of the school building and transportation division for the State Department of Education, said, "This is the first year that all districts are required to provide kindergarten programs. Therefore, the children we are transporting are younger, smaller, and lack the experience and maturity of that of even the first graders."

James L. Roberts Jr., commissioner of public safety, said, "It is essential for the safety of all children that motorists obey laws regulating the rights of way of school buses."

Mississippi's school buses have signal lights both front and rear to warn other drivers. Yellow flashing lights indicate slowing down and red flashing lights with the red arm extended from the bus is the signal for other vehicles to stop while the children enter or exit the bus.

When a school bus displays a stop signal while children are entering or exiting the bus, Mississippi law requires all drivers going in the same or opposite direction to stop.

The law, section 63-7-15, Mississippi Code of 1972, reads:

"The driver of a vehicle upon a street or highway upon meeting or overtaking any school bus which has stopped on the street or highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall come to a complete stop and shall not proceed until the children have crossed the street or highway and the school bus has proceeded in the direction it was going."

"This section shall be applicable only in the event the school bus shall bear upon the front and rear thereon a plainly visible sign containing the words 'school bus' in letters not less than four (4) inches in height which can be removed or covered when the vehicle is not in use as a school bus."

Cain said more than 10,000 residents in Mississippi were certified as school bus drivers during the summer months.

"This gives us a primary driver and a substitute driver for the more than 5,200 buses that we operate daily. All drivers have been trained and certified," Cain added.

Roberts said two children died during the 1985 school year in separate incidents involving school buses.

"Being a cautious, responsible driver should be the goal of each person behind the wheel. The attention or inattention a person gives school buses could mean the difference in life or death for our children," Roberts said.

"Drivers should reduce speed when meeting or overtaking a school bus and be prepared to stop at any time. Stopping for a school bus may cause drivers to lose a little time," Roberts said. "But what is more important than saving a life?" he asked.

Roberts said that school buses are required to stop at railroad crossings and motorists should use caution when following a bus that is approaching a crossing.

FINALLY, AN ALTERNATIVE TO DENTURES

Q: My grandfather has complained for years about putting in and taking out his dentures. In fact, he keeps wondering why no one has developed "permanent" teeth - or have they?

A: Osseointegration - or the attachment of bone to metal - now offers hope to thousands of people without teeth who for various reasons cannot use dentures. It actually incorporates a complete set of artificial teeth into the jawbone or gums.

Some 30 million people in the U.S. alone have no teeth in one or both jaws. Of this number, an estimated three million cannot wear dentures for either physiological or psychological reasons.

The osseointegration procedure has been developed in this country and Sweden over many years. The process has resulted in a superior system that minimizes the risks of both infection and loosening of the implanted denture - both major drawbacks of the earlier implant systems.

The procedure is delicate, however, and requires the skill of a qualified oral surgeon. Once the prosthesis - or denture - is permanently in place, with proper care it should last a lifetime.

Osseointegration is a two-phase process. The first step involves the insertion of special metal fixtures directly into the jawbone. Special anchors for the new dentures are implanted in the second stage.

Not every person who wears dentures is an eligible candidate for osseointegration because of the complexity of the surgery. The new dentures require scrupulous oral care at home, for example, to avoid infection. Additionally, the person's jawbone must be able to support the new denture and sometimes the amount or quality of the bone is insufficient.

Furthermore, is the question of cost. A person should check to see if the procedure is covered by his or her health insurance, because generally such surgery is considered an elective procedure.

Careful consideration of the options for replacing removable dentures is important. The complications and risks of implanting permanent dentures must be considered.

One should examine closely the technique the surgeon will use, then make sure he understands what will be done, what type and how many implants will be used, as well as the alternatives available.

Knowing who will make the prosthesis or denture is equally important. The surgeon and the prosthodontist should work together as a team for best results.

This 'Matter of Health' was prepared in cooperation with oral surgeons on staff at the University Hospital - the teaching hospital for the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Readers may suggest future topics by writing to 'Matters of Health,' the University of Mississippi Medical Center, 2500 North State Street, Jackson, MS 39216-4505.

IN CONGRESS

By Cong. Trent Lott

99th CONGRESS HEADS FOR LEGISLATIVE FINALE

Congress returns from its Labor Day District Work Period on September 8 with no more than 20 legislative days left to wrap up its business prior to adjournment.

There's a lot to be done, particularly on spending bills for the 1987 fiscal year. About half of the federal government's trillion dollar budget is controlled through annual spending bills. Money for the rest, including social security and interest on the federal debt, is permanently appropriated.

The House of Representatives has passed 10 of the 13 spending measures, and the Senate has acted on only two. Pending in the House are the defense, foreign operations and housing appropriations bills. Regrettably, Congress probably will combine most of the 13 spending bills into an omnibus "continuing resolution" to carry the government through the beginning of 1987. Continuing resolutions are no way to run a government.

Congress also faces the problem of repairing the constitutional flaw in the Gramm-Rudman budget balancing act which gradually reduces the deficit each year over a five-year period to put the budget under control. A July 7 Supreme Court ruling struck down as unconstitutional the law's core provision which triggered automatic spending cuts each year if Congress failed to meet specified budget targets.

Both the House and the Senate must vote on the conference report on the tax overhaul bill before it can become law.

The budget reconciliation bill, the legislation by which the Congress enforces the reductions in spending set out in the budget for the coming year, also awaits action.

In direct response to President Reagan's request, the House is expected, immediately upon its return to Washington, to take up an omnibus anti-drug abuse bill. Its provisions range from proposals to prohibit the laundering of illegal drug money to a massive education program aimed at preventing drug abuse to nearly $1 billion for new prison construction.

On September 10, the House Rules Committee on which I serve will take up a new comprehensive immigration reform bill. In years past, immigration bills have died in Congress' eleventh hour considerations due to sharp differences over employer sanctions, amnesty for illegal aliens already in this country and the proposal for a permanent resident status program for foreigners who can prove they worked at least 60 days in American agriculture.

Conference committees are expected to reach agreements which will be acted on by October 3 on South Africa sanctions, superfund (toxic waste dump cleanup) financing and Pentagon reorganization. The reorganization legislation is designed to shift bureaucratic power within the Pentagon from the separate armed services to the senior officials intended to coordinate the services - the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the commanders in chief of the combat forces in the field.

How the 99th Congress chooses to deal with these issues - many of them landmark initiatives - will very well determine its legacy. We've got our work cut out for us!

Quotables by CUEVAS

Local high school football teams are expecting to compile a better record this week in action compared to last Friday.

The Hancock North Central Hawks who were the only winners last Friday will visit arch rival Pearl River Central.

It has always been a good game between the two schools which gives spectators an interesting and close-scoring game.

A real battle is shaping up in the game between Bay High and Pass Christian's Pirates in Bay St. Louis Friday night.

Both local teams lost heartbreakers last week and are hungry for victory.

The Tigers will have to play a mistake-free game to take the Pirates, because Pass Christian will turn a mistake into points on the scoreboard.

St. Stanislaus will be seeking to even its 1986 record when they play host to St. John's Eagles of Gulfport.

The Rock-A-Chaws were unable to get a scoring punch together last week against a highly-rated Louisiana team, Pearl River.

Stanislaus will have the home field advantage over St. John, who can play tough football.

The game last week was good experience for the very young Rock squad and they should be ready for the Eagles Friday.

Our local teams need good fan support. That little extra boost can mean the difference between victory and defeat in many instances.

We know head coaches Vernon Powell and Clevan Williams are hoping for the stadiums to be filled Friday night, with two games on tap in Bay St. Louis, we hope you will attend one.

We know Head Coach Irvin Favre will be looking for a lot of Hawk supporters at Pearl River Central and Head Coach Alton Wright will be hoping to have his side of Tiger Stadium packed with Pirate fans.

Remember, kickoffs will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday, and we hope you make a game.

A term many of you may have not heard about is 'The Notch'.

Persons born in the years of 1917-21 are referred to by the Social Security System as 'The Notch'.

Under current law, people born in the 'Notch Years' receive an average of up to 24 percent less in Social Security benefits than persons born before or after.

This problem was brought to light by syndicated columnist Abigail van Buren, who told the U.S. House Committee on Aging that her Notch articles provoked a huge public outcry that was greater than for any other article she has written in 30 years.

An example was cited about two sisters, one born in 1916 and the other 1917, both started to work for the same company the same day, both retired the same day 25 years later.

The sister who was born in 1917 would receive $152 less per month than her younger sister.

U.S. Congressman Edward Royal's bill, H.R. 1917, if passed will restore benefits to the thousands of citizens born during the period of 1917-21.

Interested citizens may want to contact their Congressmen and urge them to pass this very needed bill.

Jimmy Lagasse Jr., chairman of the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon for Hancock and Western Harrison counties, reports a record was set this year.

Lagasse said a grand total of $10,632 was raised over the Labor Day weekend in the area.

Pledges amounted to $7,317. Bay St. Louis, Waveland, and Pass Christian firefighters collected a total of $2,520. Bay firefighters were assisted by Clermont Harbor and BaySide for a three-day collection on US-90, and the fish bowls placed in the many businesses including at Waveland City Hall amounted to $795 and helped make this the best Muscular Dystrophy collection ever for the area.

Lagasse was very happy to set a record, as this was the tenth time the Waveland Civic Association sponsored the telethon on a local level.

We know the children to be helped by Muscular Dystrophy will always appreciate the efforts of everyone in our area as well as throughout the nation.

Thanks to everyone for a job well done.

Monday breakfast to launch chamber membership drive

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce will launch its annual countywide membership drive with a kick-off breakfast Monday, Sept. 15.

The drive will run through Sept. 28, and a celebration cookout has been scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 28.

This year's theme for the membership drive will be "Make the Chamber Choice. The Chamber is the one partner every business needs."

Businesses and individuals throughout Hancock County will be contacted by mail and in person by five teams who will be competing to win a trip to New Orleans via Celebrity Limousines for two nights at the International Hotel on St. Charles Avenue.

Team chairmen for the event are Joyce Lee, David Compretta, Sherlyn Breland, Ellen Kane and Cathy Ladner.

"We are very excited about this year's membership drive," said Joyce Lee, Chamber membership chairman, "and we want all businesses to join the Chamber in its efforts to make Hancock County a better place to live."

"Individual members are also important to the Chamber's programs, and we urge all individuals to make the Chamber choice and become a member," she continued.

After the membership drive, a celebration cookout has been set for Sunday, Sept. 28, from 12 noon until 5 p.m. at Pavilion No. 3 at Buccaneer State Park in Waveland.

Circuit Clerk Rutherford, Waveland Mayor John Longo and Beat Five Supervisor Jimmy Travira will do the cooking. The menu includes steak, baked potato, corn, salad and garlic bread.

Lunch will be served from noon until 2 p.m., and the cost is $7 per person.

All Chamber members and their guests are urged to attend this event, and welcome all new members. Reservations may be made by contacting the Chamber office at 467-0948.

Anyone wishing more information about a Chamber membership or the drive itself may call the Chamber office, and a representative will be happy to call on you.

State delegation to visit Japan

Superintendent of Education Richard Boyd and Attorney General Ed Pittman will host a delegation of 28 educators from Japan's Ishikawa province later this month.

The trip, sponsored by the Japanese Ministry of Education, will include visits to school systems in several different states. Mississippi is the first state to be visited. The group will arrive on Tuesday, Sept. 23 and will stay in Jackson until Saturday, Sept. 27. Along with trips to city schools in Jackson and Clinton, the group will visit the offices of the State Department of Education, the Career Development Center in Jackson, and Northwest Rankin High School in Rankin County.

Other activities include a reception hosted by Governor Bill Allain at the Mansion, a dinner in a private home in Jackson hosted by the Jackson City Schools, a luncheon sponsored by the Shoemaker Newspaper Group, a visit to the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Museum, and a shopping trip to Metrocenter. The group will also take a side trip to New Orleans before leaving Mississippi for New York and their second state tour.

"One of the first questions raised by Japanese industrial prospects looking at Mississippi is the quality of our public education," General Pittman said today. "It is very important to us that this group of educators return home to Japan with a good report on our schools and our commitment to education."

Tidewater reports first fiscal quarter results

Tidewater Inc. has reported consolidated net losses of $14.1 million or 68 cents per share after provision for preferred dividends of $265 thousand for the first fiscal quarter ended June 30 compared with a net loss of $9.4 million for the same period last year.

Revenues for the first three months were $45.3 million compared with $66.3 million for the same period last year.

Consolidated pretax losses for the first fiscal quarter were $13.0 million, compared with pretax losses of $16.1 million in the first fiscal quarter of 1986.

The weighted average number of common and common equivalent shares outstanding was 21,112,598 compared with 16,729,929 shares outstanding a year ago.

John P. Laborde, Tidewater chairman and chief executive officer, said first fiscal quarter revenues and earnings declined over the corresponding period a year ago as a result of continued severely depressed utilization and rates for marine equipment and dramatically lower prices for Indonesian oil.

The company's compression division was profitable as a result of steady leasing of equipment. Although major cost containment programs had been put in place and are continuing, price erosion led to lower margins in our primary businesses compared with the first fiscal quarter a year ago, Laborde said.

"We do not foresee any major improvement for Tidewater over the next two quarters, with some possible improvement by the fourth fiscal quarter. We remain confident that at some point oil activity will increase as the surplus of crude oil dissipates and prices improve. The surplus of natural gas will also disappear and produce further incentives to drill. Tidewater remains in a strong position to benefit from a return in activity as it occurs."

"Tidewater has been negotiating with substantially all of its lenders and lessors in order to improve cash flows and financial flexibility over the next three years. The company has reached an agreement in principle with its major lenders for rescheduling of payments on their loans which aggregate approximately $100 million. The revised loan agreements will, among other things, provide for deferral of principal repayments until April, 1989, and will prohibit the payment of cash dividends on Tidewater's common and preferred stock," Laborde said.

First quarter marine revenues were $24.7 million compared with $31.1 million in the first fiscal quarter of fiscal 1986. Pretax losses were $13.7 million in the quarter just ended, compared with pretax losses of $7.1 million in the first quarter a year ago.

Compression revenues were $14.5 million compared with $17.2 million in the first fiscal quarter of 1986. Pretax earnings were $6 million in the first fiscal quarter compared with pretax losses of $6 million last year.

Oil and gas revenues were $5.8 million compared with $7.3 million in the first fiscal quarter of 1986. Pretax earnings were nil for the current quarter compared with losses of $9.2 million in the first fiscal quarter a year ago.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: What are the rights of an individual when a creditor attempts to repossess furniture or household items?

A: If an individual buys an item, such as a television, from a store, and pays for the item over a period of time, the store will probably retain what is known as a security interest in the item.

If the buyer has signed an agreement giving the store a security interest in the item, then the store will usually have the right to come and repossess, or "repossess" the item if the buyer does not make his payments.

However, the store can only repossess the item itself if it can do so without a breach of the peace, or disturbance.

If the buyer refuses to allow the store employee to enter his house and retake the item, the store employee may not force his way in or threaten the buyer with harm. Instead, the store must bring an action in court to regain possession of the item.

Q: Can a creditor retake a car or truck without the owner's permission?

A: Since a car or truck is not kept indoors as are the household items discussed in the question above, the creditor with a security interest in a car can usually repossess the car when the buyer defaults in payments.

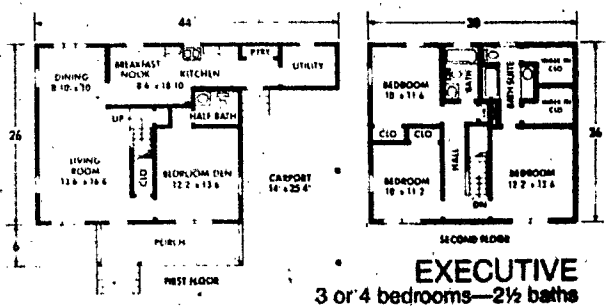

Again, the law simply requires that the repossession take place without a breach of the peace. The buyer's permission is not required in order for a creditor to repossess a car which is sitting on the street.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, until 10:00 a.m. October 6, 1986, for providing all labor, material and equipment to construct a combination metal office and maintenance building for Hancock County, Mississippi.

Site will be cleared by owner. All fill will be furnished and placed by owner to rough grade with contractor responsible for fine grading.

Plans, specifications and bid proposal forms may be obtained by contacting E. Michael Nicaise, Hancock County Chancery Clerk, Hancock County Courthouse, P.O. Box 155, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520, (601-467-5404). Plans and proposals may be returned upon receipt of $25.00, refundable upon receipt of certified check or bid bond for five percent (5%) of total bid payable to Hancock County must accompany each proposal. This money is to become the property of the Owner in the event the insurance and bond are not executed within the time set forth, as liquidated damages for the delay and expense of re-advertising the work. Certified check or bid bond will be returned immediately to unsuccessful bidders.

A performance bond, or equal, in the full amount of the contract will be required of the successful bidder. In lieu of a performance bond the successful bidder may post with the Board of Supervisors, the full amount of the bid, in cash or its equivalent, conditioned for the proper, proper and efficient performance of the contract, and to hold it equivalent to be held until the successful completion of the project.

Attention is called to the fact that contracts exceeding $50,000 require contractors to be licensed under applicable laws of the State of Mississippi and have a certificate of responsibility.

This Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Published by order of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, dated this 2nd day of September, 1986. (Seal)

Soil, water conservation practices linked to failed civilizations

Understanding what past civilizations have taught about soil and water conservation may help mankind avoid some painful lessons, a Mississippi State University archaeologist says.

Dr. John Peterson, director of the Cobb Institute of Archaeology at MSU, said recently that failure to address soil and water conservation has played a key role in the downfall of great civilizations.

Peterson spoke recently to about 100 farmers and conservation officials at a resource management conservation field day on the Gerald Gillis farm near Starkville.

The field day showcased conservation practices under way on the farm in a demonstration conducted by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, Tennessee Valley Authority, Soil Conservation Service and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Peterson cited examples of earlier great civilizations, including the Roman, Persian and Mayan empires, which he said perished because of failure to address critical conservation-related problems.

"History usually credits the fall of civilizations with invading hordes or loss of leadership," Peterson said. "Rarely is soil and water conservation mentioned. But all civilizations depend on growing plants."

The once-flourishing Mayan Indian civilization in what is now Central America, used farming intensively for 2,000 years from 1000 B.C. to 1000 A.D., Peterson said.

"It's long been a mystery as to why the empire fell," he said. "It's only been recently that aerial photography has revealed massive irrigation ditches used in agriculture."

The archaeologist theorized that the end may have come from a gradual silting of irrigation channels, cultivation of forests or a decay of water control devices in dry years, leading to a collapse of the entire life-support system.

"The decline may have come gradually, but the end was sudden," he said. "The population had to flee."

Peterson said the Persian empire, in which present-day Iran has its roots, is another example of what can happen when agricultural resources are pushed beyond the limits through abuse.

"The Persian empire was considered the breadbasket of western civilization," he said. "Now the thing that's keeping Iran afloat is oil. It's mind-boggling how man can abuse land."

While historians often point to invading armies and poor leadership for the fall of the Roman empire, Peterson said loss of soil resources and decline of the rural population preceded the fall.

He said the United States is fortunate in that its farmland has been cultivated intensively for a relatively short period compared to 1,000 years or more in other parts of the world.

Peterson also said agricultural resource problems are a worldwide issue that goes beyond preserving the U.S. farm family.

"What we're seeing as a result of the farm situation is bankruptcy in America and starvation in Africa," he said.

Peterson also said farmers are up against what he termed the "blame-the-victim pattern" in which society blames farmers for their own ill fortune.

"Farmers were somehow supposed to anticipate lower land values and a declining export market," he said. "It's like if you walk down a street at night and get robbed, you get blamed because you walked down the street."

The archaeologist said world governments have an obligation to agriculture even though that segment of the economy becomes a scapegoat in periods of economic stress.

"When the going gets rough, governments try to take it out of agriculture and the rural populations," Peterson said. "Government must be willing to make an investment in agriculture."

He also said the resource problem has been a major factor in prosperity since the 1950s in which the materialistic demands of the population have stretched resources to their limits.

"It's not a Republican versus a Democratic problem or an urban versus a rural problem," Peterson said. "The fact that we are pushing the resource base to the limit is a societal problem."

YOU AND YOUR HEALTH

Dear Dr. Esse: I have no children of my own but it seems to me that most parents forget what a hard time is growing up. They don't show enough patience with their children's problems. Don't you agree? Mrs. B. Dear Mrs. B: I've become convinced that both doctors and parents are at fault. We stress the difficulties and liabilities of adult change of life, but exclude the many challenges facing adolescents as they fight to emerge from the cocoon of youthfulness to maturity. Admittedly, female menopause and the male climacteric (change of life) invite a host of undesirable symptoms: hot flashes, perspiration, anxieties, lessened sexual potency, loss of self-confidence — and other symptoms of physical and emotional imbalance. But remember these discomforts are occurring during the 40s, 50s and 60s. For preteens and teenagers, the struggle is against a world still large and threatening to their developing ego. They're trying so hard to adjust without getting hurt or hurting those they love. Youngsters may not have hot flushes but they have hot blushes. Instead of being plagued by impotence, they are continually irked and prodded by overpowering sex urges — both in waking state and in dreams. They're forever struggling to be a "good" boy or a "good" girl. But they wonder what is "good" and what is "bad." Lack of communication with parents intensifies these problems. "Am I being good? Am I a credit to my parents? What do my playmates and schoolmates really think of me? Do they like me? Am I too short? Too fat? Too tall? When will the pimples go away?" Is it any wonder so many become depressed? Growing up may be a "natural" process, but as parents, let's not forget that adolescence is the first — and most trying — change of life.

NEW BRIDGE—Residents of Heron Bay Estates in Ansley now have an actual bridge to drive over rather than a series of culverts. The bridge, which is higher than the old three-culvert structure known as Claiborne High Rise, was recently completed by Gulf Construction at a cost of $38,000 for the county, according to Beat One Supervisor Bert Courrage. Courrage said the county was able to save on some of the cost by using surplus materials left from other projects. The bridge provides the only access Heron Bay residents have over a canal that crosses LaFrance Road. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette) completed by 2 p.m. The bridge was erected by Naval Mobile Construction Battalion 133 erected the bridge on July 22 to provide Heron Bay residents with a temporary means of crossing a canal at LaFrance Road while a drainage structure known as the Claiborne High Rise was replaced. Pasta of all sorts, penny-wise and filling, from the widest macaroni and spaghetti to the thinnest fettucini, is a main dish of infinite variety - you don't have to serve your pasta everytime with same old tomato sauce, do you?

Take a lesson from thrifty cooks of the Italian countryside who top their pasta with all sorts of sauces, from a simple olive oil and garlic sauce, or shrimp or tuna or oysters in a garlicky oil and butter sauce well seasoned, with chopped parsley. Or perhaps, just butter and grated cheese.

This tasty dish comes down to our day from workers of earlier days in the fields of sunny Italy. As their ancestors did before them, the toilers in the fields today take along with them their wind and the "makings" of their midday meal, to be cooked over an open fire as they take a respite from their labors. Here's their:

SPAGHETTI CARBONARA
1 lb spaghetti
3 eggs, room temperature
½ cup each grated Romano and Parmesan cheese
1 clove garlic, minced

8 slices bacon, diced
2 Tbsp. olive oil
½ cup dry white wine
Freshly ground black pepper
Cook spaghetti, of course, in boiling water just to the "al dente" state - "to the teeth" not mushy and overcooked. Let it stay warm in the pot.
Beat the eggs with the cheeses and the garlic. Fry the bacon in the oil until it crisps. Add the wine to the pan, but don't drain the bacon drippings, and continue cooking until the wine evaporates.

Drain the spaghetti, then return it to the hot pan, add the bacon-wine mixture and stir quickly. Add the cheese-egg mixture and good grindings of pepper, tossing quickly so that the egg mixture "cooks" atop the hot pasta. (Four servings)

In the authentic Old Italy version, you serve the pasta unadorned, with each diner adding bacon and cheese to his taste, breaking a raw egg atop his serving and stirring all together with a fork - but when I tried that my family rebelled, so I learned to mix it all well together out of sight in the kitchen!

Three-day run planned for Bay Little Theatre's second season offering

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present its second play of the season, "Mass Appeal" by Bill C. Davis on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18-20 at the playhouse on Boardman Avenue. Curtain is 8:15 p.m.

Directed by Mike Cuevas, the play stars Rick Rotundo and Bill Walker as priest and seminarian, respectively, in conflict about the best way to minister to the needs of the people.

Although the struggle between the two characters is tense, the scenes of humor and sensitivity reflect the hope of success, Cuevas stated.

"Mass Appeal," essentially a Roman Catholic look at itself, is applicable to almost all religious denominations, as it deals with the human appeal for understanding.

According to Cuevas, "This has been a wonderful play to direct. It is direct, concise, and has a wonderful sense of humor about human frailty."

"The stage version is much stronger than the recent movie version. It does not have the excess baggage of too many actors, and allows the two actors to provide the sense of success that the movie lacked."

Rotundo, a local comedic favorite appears as the happy-go-lucky Father Tim Farley, beloved pastor of St. Francis Parish.

Making his local debut as the sensitive seminarian is Walker.

Reservations for "Mass Appeal" may be made by calling 467-6432. Season ticket holders are also requested to make reservations. Admission is $5.

CHAIN SAW SAFETY

Most chain saw accidents could be avoided if everyone followed a few commonsense safety precautions. So now that woodcutting season is here, let's review the do's and don'ts.

CHAIN SAW DO'S

- When shopping for new chain saws or accessories, consider those with built-in safety features such as automatic chain brakes, bar-tip guards, antikickback guide bars, antikickback chains, and hand guards.
- Read your owner's manual carefully, reviewing it before each woodcutting season.
- Keep your chain saw in perfect working order; a sharp chain and well-maintained saw make safe operation more certain.
- Adjust the chain tension frequently; a loose chain can fly off the guide bar.
- Make sure that observers and helpers stay clear of the work area.
- Keep bare hands away from a hot saw—especially the muffler.
- Be certain that the chain stops turning when the throttle is released. Over 15% of all injuries are due to chains that don't stop when they're supposed to.
- Be careful when fueling your saw . . . allow the machine to cool before adding gasoline.

CHAIN SAW DON'TS

- Never carry a running saw without engaging the chain brake.
- Never place a running saw on the ground and walk away from it.
- To avoid kickback, never allow the tip of the guide bar to contact anything.
- Never allow anyone to use a chain saw who isn't familiar with its proper operation.
- Never work alone; if you're injured, you'll need help.
- Don't fall large trees on a windy day.
- Don't cut with your chain saw held above waist height, or you won't be able to control kickback.
- Never use a chain saw when you're tired; fatigue can cause the slowness and the sloppiness that often precede loss of control.
- Don't use a chain saw if you've been drinking or have used any drugs that cause drowsiness. One slip in concentration can lead to a trip to the emergency ward.
- Never start your chain saw until you've donned the proper safety clothing: heavy leather gloves, heavy leather boots (preferably steel-toed), long pants, long-sleeved shirt (with cuffs buttoned and tail tucked in), and eye and ear protection.
- Never stand directly behind your saw. Rather, stand off to the left side so that if the bar kicks up it won't be directly in line with your chest and head.
- Don't allow your left elbow to bend while you're sawing; if your machine tries to kick up, you'll need all the straight-arm power you can muster in order to control it.
- Never allow legs or feet (yours or anyone else's) to get beneath what you're sawing.

Hancock school board approves new phone system for district

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Anticipating monthly savings of more than $200, the Hancock County School Board voted Tuesday to purchase a new electronic telephone system for the district.

In addition to saving money on the equipment, the board will also be able to limit long distance usage and delete costly single-line phones, according to Bobby Wilson of Scientific Telecom Company of Greenwood.

The board had requested a representative of Scientific Telecom to attend this meeting when only a single bid for the district's telephone system was received last week.

The district currently has ongoing monthly telephone expenses from Hancock North Central, Gulfview Elementary and Charles B. Murphy Elementary totaling nearly $400.

The new system is expected to cut that figure in half.

Under a 60-month lease-purchase plan, the district would pay approximately $330 per month for the equipment.

Included in the payments is a 15 percent interest charge on the purchase price of $16,370.

The board may later decide to purchase the system outright.

The new system was approved with a 3-2 vote with George E. Ladner and Tommy Shaw voting nay.

During the meeting Board President Billie Faye Lyons asked Business Manager Greg Jones when he could have a financial report for board members.

Jones said he would try to send it to board members by the middle of the month.

He also reported that due to the addition of teachers in the district, expenses need to be held to budgeted amount.

"There are some uncertainties in the financial status due to the overload of students," he said.

Eighty more students in the district than anticipated required the addition of three teachers in the district, he said.

Jones added with emergency repairs already made and the additional salaries, most of the $115,000 surplus from the past fiscal year was used.

Also at the meeting, Shaw inquired on the status of acquiring textbooks for students who currently do not have them.

Assistant Superintendent James Pair told the board he had been checking in Jackson for surplus books and as soon as the books needed could be located they would be purchased.

Also at the meeting the board approved substitute teachers for all schools in the district for the 1986-87 school year.

Charles B. Murphy Elementary substitute teachers are Becky McArthur, Gloria Myers, Dora Rockwell, Beth Randall and Kathy Carver.

Carol Bustetter, Cindy Havard, Trudy Jones, Myrtle Jordan, Cheryl Nicaise, Lorraine Nicaise, Helen Patterson and Ann Shiyou are substitutes for Hancock North Central Elementary School.

Included among Gulfview Elementary School substitute teachers are Carol Bustetter, Genette Butsch, Maria Mitchell, Dora Rockwell, Cathy Smith, Karen Smith, Julie Toomey and Lynn Lafontaine.

Hancock North Central High School substitute teachers are Kathy Ladner, Rebecca Nicaise, Deborah Purcell, Maria Mitchell, Myra Brown, Geraldine Spiers, Laverne Halferty, Cindy Havard, Trudy Jones, Myrtle Jordan, Madeline Knight, Lorraine Nicaise, Candy McNease, Helen Patterson, Martha Paxton, Karin Phillips and Violet Siewert.

In other business the board: —Approved a request for Rhea Scafidi, Myra Peterson, Lillian Ladner, Velma Ladner and Linda Lenain to attend the Mississippi School Food Service Association Convention Nov. 7-9 in Biloxi.

—Approved a request for Larry Johnson, HNC teacher, to make daily deposit for the cafeteria and that the cost be divided between school bookkeeping and food service.

—Approved a teachers' handbook for the 1986-87 school year. —Approved a request for James Pair to attend Teacher Recruitment Activities at Mississippi State University, Mississippi University for Women, and University of Southern Mississippi beginning Oct. 8.

—Approved the advertisement for bids for repair work in all cafeterias and the supervisor's office at the Central Office.

Overcrowding remains a problem

Bay-Waveland school board sets special meeting for architects' proposals

By DENA BISNETTE

The Bay-Waveland School District Board has tentatively set a special meeting for Sept. 22 to discuss architect's proposals for a long-range building program.

The meeting is tentatively scheduled for 7 p.m. and will probably take place in the Bay Senior High School library to allow architects to make use of overhead projectors and other visual aids, Superintendent of Education Roger Oge said.

He said five architects are presently expected to participate but others have an additional week to submit proposals if they wish to be considered for the project.

Oge and principals from all of the district's schools except the St. Rose de Lima Fifth Grade Center told board members Monday that the schools are overcrowded with new students coming in daily.

Oge termed the school population increases "a fairly massive influx of students into our system" for which the addition of kindergarten classes is only partially responsible.

"We are wall-to-wall with students. We have no place to put them," said Oge, stressing the need for a building program.

Oge said the district is presently organizing a survey of parents and local residents to try to determine exactly what needs should be addressed in the formulation of a comprehensive building program.

Roger James, principal at North Bay Elementary School, reported that his school had over 500 students Friday with more expected this week. Some of the students are being transferred to Waveland Elementary School to try to relieve the problem.

New sections were added for first and third grade before transfers began, he said.

He said he has so many students that some transportation arrangements had to be reorganized.

"I'm glad the State Department of Education didn't come down today at 1:30. We had all the students out of class trying to get them on the right school bus," the principal said.

James said this year "we got off to a slow start because we had to change classrooms around" and explained that the first grade rooms had to be vacated for kindergarten, with fifth grade rooms being set up for first grade after fifth graders were moved to the St. Rose Center.

Although James is also principal of the St. Rose Center, which has about 172 students, a separate report on that school will be presented at the next regular board meeting by its resident administrator, Assistant Principal Betty Ann Jones.

Waveland Elementary Principal James Baldree said his school's population is also increasing daily.

"We have taken all the children who could not fit into North Bay and we thought we had a total of 317 students, but eight more showed up today," he told the board.

Baldree, who provided the board with a written report that included information on scores for reading level test scores administered to all of the students, asked the board for more emphasis on pre-registration.

Pre-registration is designed to assist principals in planning for a particular number of students, but Baldree said apparently there are many people not participating in the program.

"We expect this many students and we plan for that, then on the first day all these extra little warm bodies show up and we have to provide for them too. Pre-registration cuts down on that problem," he said.

Bay Junior High School Principal W.J. Cameron and Bay Senior High Principal Frank Ladner both reported that the opening of school went smoothly despite conditions Ladner called "very crowded."

Bay Junior High had 485 students Friday, with most of the crowding problems in the sixth and eighth grades and some decrease from last year in the seventh grade population, Cameron said.

Ladner said the high school has 636 students.

All four principals commended their staffs on their participation in preparations for opening schools, and Board President Betty Diboll recognized Oge and Assistant Superintendent Robert Magee for their cooperation.

The board also addressed the problem of air conditioning at North Bay and in four junior high classrooms located above the gymnasium.

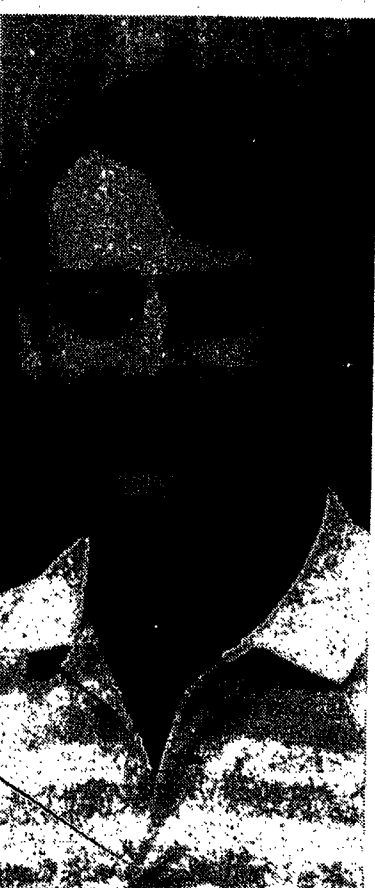

According to James, the cost of installing air conditioning and heat pumps at North Bay has been estimated at $60,000 to $75,000.

After the board heard a letter of complaint read by parent Bart Carr, who said he is concerned with the board's failure to act on the matter in the past, members voted to authorize Oge to find someone to prepare specifications for the project and to advertise for short term notes to provide funding.

The proposal to air condition the four junior high classrooms occurred later in the meeting on a separate motion.

Carr also complained about the condition of the boys' restrooms at North Bay, a matter Oge said falls under general maintenance and needs no board action.

The board's next regular meeting is Oct. 13.

NSTL introduces new exhibit

National Space Technology Laboratories is presenting a special exhibit this week at Edgewater Plaza in Biloxi.

This new exhibit highlights NSTL's contribution to America's space program over the past 20 years—from the moon landing in the 1960's to the space shuttle program.

The theme of the exhibit is "Space—Oceans—Earth" and it represents the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and all of NSTL's resident federal and state agencies.

The exhibit which closes on Sunday, includes a large scale shuttle model, an apollo space suit and space photography.

Satellite imagery from NSTL's Earth Resources Laboratory is also featured.

Personnel from NSTL's visitors center will be on hand to answer questions and provide additional information about NSTL's activities and the tour and education program available to the public during the daytime hours.

CEHS loses first game

The Coast Episcopal Raiders Saturday played their first game of the season against Calvary Heights of Baton Rouge and lost a tough, close contest 14-6.

The Raiders were in the ball game all the way but just could not seem to mount a sustained offensive drive. Misses and intercepted passes stopped Raider drives on four occasions and meant the difference in the ball game.

Calvary Heights scored both touchdowns in the first quarter and converted on one extra point try. After that, the Raider defense stiffened and only allowed four more first downs the remainder of the game.

The only Raider score came on an intercepted pass in the second quarter which was run back by freshman Billy Guice for a touchdown.

Offensive standouts for the Raiders were sophomore quarterback Sterling Thibodeaux who completed four of nine passes for 63 yards, but who was intercepted twice.

Thibodeaux also ran for 43 yards. Senior Henry Furr gained 25 yards on four carries and excellent blocking by Senior Bill Riggs opened up numerous holes in the defensive line. Defensive standouts were Seniors John Gregory with seven tackles and Victor Marchese with four.

The Raiders' next game will be against Cornerstone Academy in Baton Rouge Saturday at 2 p.m. Cornerstone is noted for having an excellent eight-man football team, so the game should be a hard-fought contest.

Bay teacher resigns after board votes to withhold pay

BY DENA BISNETTE

One teacher has resigned from her job with the Bay-Waveland School District because the board voted Aug. 29 not to pay new teachers for eight days' work.

Lana Andrews, a kindergarten teacher at North Bay Elementary School, submitted a brief letter of resignation that was accepted by the board Monday night.

The letter, addressed to Superintendent of Education Roger Oge, stated, "Due to the school board's decision on Aug. 29, 1986, not to pay the teachers for the month of August, I am resigning as kindergarten teacher at North Bay Elementary effective Sept. 4, 1986."

Andrews did not address the board or offer any additional comment in her letter.

The board's four-to-one decision was made at the advice of Board Attorney Lucien Gex after he found that a new law, which became effective July 1, might have been violated had the district's 15 new teachers been paid for the eight days they worked during August.

Elected Board Member L.D. Carter voted against the move because he was in favor of paying the teachers for days worked.

The law, which applies only to teachers hired by the district for the first time, contains a provision for payment of teachers who have worked 10 days or more but provides the board with no instruction regarding how to handle payment to teachers who have worked less than 10 days.

Carter maintained that the teachers' contracts, a document supplied by the State Department of Education, allow the teachers to be paid for days worked.

Gex said the contracts are subject to any applicable statutes and that the board may act only as specifically authorized by statute.

In other business Monday, the board:

—Heard reports on skill testing for third, eighth and 11th grade students from guidance counselors Bonnie Allison and Gibson Carter;

—Approved hiring additional personnel including Nyla Barrett, North Bay Elementary School; Sandra Dalrymple, Bay Junior High School; Janet Freeman, Waveland Elementary School; Frances Sones, Waveland Elementary; Shirley Walton, St. Rose Fifth Grade Center; Paddy Johnson, assistant teacher; and Ann Johnson, Bay Senior High maid;

—Accepted a Hancock Insurance Company bid of $2,562 for $1 million in liability insurance;

—Amended the student dress code at Bay Junior High to allow students to wear walking shorts because the school does not have air conditioners;

—Approved Oge's recommendation that a program be established for recognition of outstanding students and staff members during board meetings;

—Approved a recommendation by Board President Betty Diboll that specific groups of school employees be invited to board meetings as guests of the board;

—Agreed to advertise for computer equipment for the federally funded Chapter II program; and —Approved an agreement for leasing and maintenance of kitchen equipment for the fifth grade center.

The board has tentatively scheduled a special meeting to discuss a proposed building program for 7 p.m. Sept. 22.

The board's next regular meeting is 7 p.m. Oct. 13.

Red Cross returns to Hancock

The American Red Cross is resuming office hours in Hancock County on Tuesdays.

Red Cross Representative Annette Lombardo is available from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. Tuesdays at the Bay-Waveland-Hancock County Civil Defense Office in the Valena C. Jones Center.

She can be contacted by telephone through the Civil Defense Department at 467-9228.

Lombardo asks that anyone interested in first aid or cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) classes contact her to arrange an instructor and class schedule.

Bay downtown merchants request $5,000 for signs

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Tyson McMahon of the Downtown Merchants Association requested $5,000 for signs be included in the Bay St. Louis budget.

McMahon made his request Monday at a public hearing on the city's budget.

The funding would be used for construction of signs to indicate where Bay St. Louis is located.

"No one knows where the hell Bay St. Louis is," he said.

McMahon said very impressive signs indicating Bay St. Louis' boundaries are needed.

He added the association is very positive about developing the downtown business district and developing trade in Bay St. Louis.

If only a small percentage of the traffic that travels on US-90 can be diverted through Bay St. Louis it will benefit the community and through sales tax revenues more than refund the price of the signs, he added.

Also at the meeting representatives of the County Library system appeared to discuss additional funding requests.

Mayor Victor Franckiewicz Jr. told the group city funding for libraries was currently at its limit through millage restrictions but that he was seeking other methods to provide the additional funding.

The council will meet 7 p.m. Monday at city hall to set the millage.

Planning commission schedules special meeting Sept. 30

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

A special meeting for the Bay St. Louis Planning and Zoning Commission is set Tuesday, Sept. 30 to discuss the proposed, fence ordinance for the city.

Additions to the text of commercial districts is also scheduled to for discussion during the meeting.

At their meeting Tuesday, the commission accepted a preliminary plat from Developer Ronald Artigues on The Woods Subdivision.

The plat was accepted on the condition that the entrance to the subdivision on Pine Street be completed.

Artigues told the commission work on the Pine Street extension was in the making and no problems are anticipated.

Building code public hearings dates set

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Public hearings on the proposed building code for Hancock County are scheduled for October.

The Hancock County Planning Commission set the dates for the hearings at their recent meeting.

The first hearing will be Oct. 7 at the Diamondhead Community Center.

A hearing in Pearlinton will be at Charles B. Murphy Elementary School Oct. 16.

Gulfview Elementary School will be the site of an Oct. 20 meeting in Lakeshore.

The final hearing in the series will be at Hancock North Central High School Oct. 28.

Commission Member Skip Marsh agreed to arrange for plumbers, electricians, building inspectors and general contractors to be on hand at each meeting.

The commission decided these professionals would be able to assist in answering question by county residents regarding the proposed building code.

Commission Members Woodrow Ladner and Building Official Donn Murray are preparing a summary of the report to give to area residents.

The Sea Coast Echo

SPORTS

THE SEA COAST ECHO—THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1986-1B

WATCH OUT, TIGERS, here comes Pass Christian Quarterback Shinnal Conway, 7, sweeping wide to the right as he looks for a receiver in the Pirate-d'Iberville contest Friday. Conway led the Pirates to a near-victory against the Warriors, 28-22, with completion of nine passes in 14 attempts for 181 yards, including two touchdown tosses and a two-point conversion aerial. Conway also ran for another two-pointer. Conway and company will face the Bay High this week with kickoff at Tiger Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday. (Echo staff photo by Edgar Perez)

Rocks to host Eagles Friday

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw high school home season play will open Friday night against St. John Eagles of Gulfport.

The young Rock-A-Chaw squad will be trying to even their season record at 1-1.

Head Coach Vernon Powell stated, "Last week in our season opener against a strong Pearl River, our young players, some of whom never played before in a high school game, made several mistakes and we have been able to pick them up."

"As a matter of fact, Pearl River scored 21 points against us in the first half, and with some halftime corrections, our defense was able to hold the Rebels to only 7 points," Powell added.

Powell said the games against St. John's and Mercy Cross has developed in sort of a Catholic School 3-way rivalry.

The coach felt his squad got valuable experience against Pearl River last week, and with his staff having reviewed films of the game have been able to work on correcting them this week in practice.

First string quarterback Ya-Sin

Shabazz, who played with a bruised ankle against the Rebels last week should be fully recovered for St. John on Friday, Powell allowed.

"When we didn't fumble the ball last week, our offense looked well," Powell stated in reference to the Pearl River game in which the Rocks fumbled five times and had one pass intercepted.

Stanislaus registered 10 first downs and held Pearl River to only 11 in the loss to the highly rated Louisiana team.

Jorge Ponjuan had several good spurts last week and did an excellent job running as a tailback. Jack Simpson also did some good running, Powell, added.

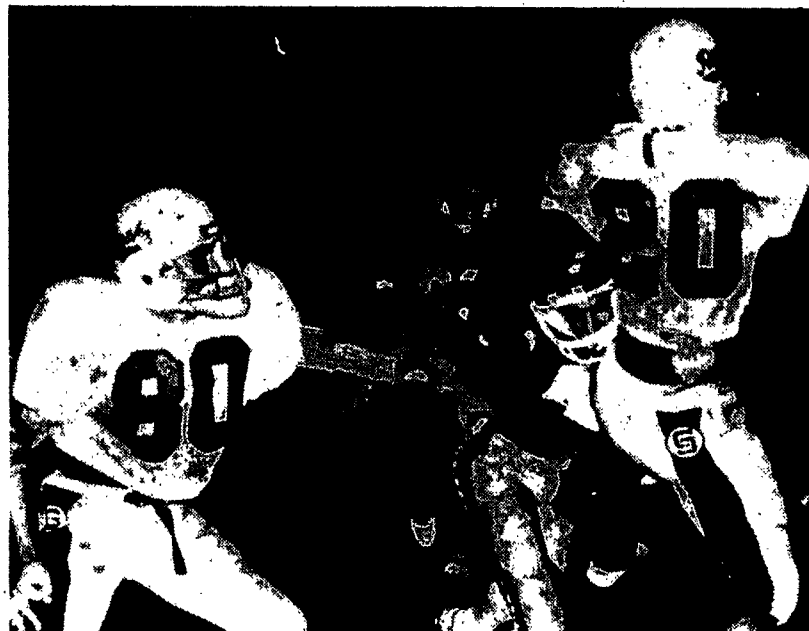

On defense, Jerry Fackrell was a standout because of several big plays, and the defensive unit played well in the second half, the coach said.

In sizing up St. John's team, Powell commented, "Norris Hopkins, their quarterback, spent last year getting his bumps and bruises, and now does a good job running the Eagles of offense, and is a fine passer."

In last week's loss to Hancock North Central, Powell felt a few breaks going the Eagles way could have changed the game outcome, as St. John played a fine game against the Hawks.

St. John's team has more experience, and Powell is hoping for his team's desire, enthusiasm and determination, will mean a victory for the Rock-A-Chaws.

Kick-off is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Rock-A-Chaw stadium, Nacaise Avenue and Booker Street.

Bay, Pass game outcome may depend on breaks

BY DENA BISNETTE

The outcome of Friday night's game between the Bay St. Louis High School Tigers and the Pass Christian Pirates is expected to depend on which team has the most breaks.

Pirate Head Coach Alton Wright said he expects the game to be "a good, even match."

Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams said the game will be "a hard-fought battle."

"This week it will be an exciting game with a lot of hard hitting. Every time these two clubs meet for this across-the-bridge rival clash it is a good one," Williams said.

"The team that wins could be whoever gets the breaks," Wright said.

Both teams lost their season openers and are hoping to strike the win column this week.

In addition to coming off a defeat, Bay High has the problem of compensating for injuries sustained in the Stone game, Williams said.

"We have changed our personnel around tremendously in preparation for this contest because of the injuries we sustained in last week's contest," he said.

"I think the only reason Bay got beat last week was too many mistakes against Stone. Stone capitalized on them," Wright said.

"In the game last week, I felt that we did a fair job but all of the fumbles and mental breakdowns we had kept us from winning the game," Williams said.

"We are young but we must overcome the mistakes which we are making and we are going to get better each week we play."

"Offensively, we had a lot of good surges in running the ball but we had problems too because we are working new personnel into our system," the Tiger coach added.

"We've lost four boys this week on our offensive team and some of those same athletes play both ways."

"Defensively, we stopped the run last week but we got burned with two passes which led to touchdowns," Williams said.

The game is the first conference and district battle for the Pirates in the 1986 season. It is Bay High's second.

"I think we've got a chance. We've been picked third. For (Tiger Coach Cleveland) Williams and the Tigers to have a chance, they will definitely have to beat us," Wright said.

The Pirate coach said he prefers playing at least one game before going into conference and district play.

The Tigers have stacked all five of their conference and district contests back-to-back at the top of their schedule.

The Tigers will have to get through the Pass Christian offensive line Friday to battle a scrambling quarterback.

"We have made a lot of adjustments this week because of the well-balanced attack that Pass has. That imposes a big threat with their quick backs and receivers," Williams said.

"The Pass Christian offensive line is huge, and they have (David) Vontoure running fullback at 210 and Derrick Benoit who can run a 9.8 in the 100."

"Benoit is a threat as a running back as well as at receiver, but there are three quick backs and receivers out there at one time."

"They have a superb passing attack and a very versatile quarterback, Shinnal Conway, who can throw and is a pretty good scrambler. He's a good option quarterback."

"I know we must be able to pick up on those stunting linebackers this week, but they will have to respect our ability to run and pass too," Williams added.

For Wright, whose team made a respectable showing last week despite a 28-22 loss to d'Iberville, a win may depend on the Pirate defensive unit's ability to stop Bay High's running game.

"Bay High has a tough running game. We will have to stop (Quarterback Dwayne) Robertson, particularly on the bootleg. We will have to get a little rush on him and use some little stunts," he said.

"We also have to stop Brian Laneaux, their big powerhouse. He has a lot of power and a fair amount of speed. I think we need to get to him and lock him up so he can't get any momentum going. If we can do that, we will stop him."

"We also have to be careful not to get inside the 25 so they don't kick, because if they kick it, Laneaux will get three on it."

Another Tiger player who may be hard for Wright's team to stop could be Aaron Whavers, who was injured in the Bay-Stone contest and may remain out for this week's game.

Pass Christian will have to look out for good speed and quick receivers in Bay's passing game, Wright added.

Wright said the Pirate's passing game worked well against d'Iberville last week and will probably be used often against the Tigers Friday.

"We had to throw a little more than we wanted to because d'Iberville had a quick defense. We also found out our running game has a long way to go, but we have a quick backfield. We have young kids who have lots of speed," the coach said.

He said the Pirates will probably run out of the I formation and the Power I, which is also utilized by Bay High.

The single wing, a long unused formation that Wright revived last year, will show up on only a few special plays if it is used at all Friday.

The Pirates will also probably run some percentage defense.

A tentative starting line-up for the Tigers includes, on offense, Robertson, quarterback; Laneaux, running back; Mark Haverty, fullback; Andrew Collins, wingback; Dante Curry, split end; Robert Hargett, tight end; Amadae Collins, center; Greg Nacaise and Courtney Lawreys, guards; and Doral Nicholas and Jerry island, tackles.

The defense is expected to include Amadae Collins and Laneaux, tackles; Island and Hargett, ends; Britt Woods, free safety; and Curry and Andrew Collins, cornerbacks.

Linebackers are expected to include Greg Nacaise, Martin Perniclaro, Haverty and Wayne Karl.

Pirates expected to start Friday include Quarterback Conway, who completed nine out of 14 attempted passes for 181 yards against d'Iberville. Those include passes for two touchdowns and a two-point conversion. Conway also ran for an additional conversion.

Also expected to see offensive action are Eric Dawkins or Vontoure at fullback; Benoit, tailback; Bobby Dedeaux, split end; Hilton McKay, wingback; Kevin Charlot, tight end; Jason Dedeaux and John Lizana, tackles; Mervin Janet and Nate Bernard, guards; and Greg Moffett, center.

Charlot will also see some action as a defensive end. Last week, Charlot made 10 solo tackles, two assisted tackles and two quarterback sacks, Wright said. Conway may also see some spot play as a defensive linebacker.

Dawkins may also see some defensive action at outside linebacker.

Others expected to see defensive action include Tyrone Callahan, defensive end; Greg Moffett and Vontoure, and Lizana and Chris Dedeaux alternating as tackles; Tim Murrell, noseguard; Nate Benard and Jason Dedeaux, linebackers; Benoit and Steven Swanier alternating at strong safety; Horace Lizana and McKay alternating with LaShan Ausmer, cornerbacks; and Bobby Dedeaux and James Redmond alternating at free safety.

The game begins at 7:30 at McCullough Field.

Girls stage first soccer practice

Bay Area Youth Soccer Girls Under-14 engaged in their first practice of the year Sunday.

This Fall, Dynamite expects to play teams from Slidell and Mobile, attend work sessions at the University of South Alabama under the direction of head coach Roy Patton, and participate in available tournaments.

Members of the team who have moved up from the Under-12 age group under coach Kathy Edwards are Susanna Cameron, goalie;

Whitney White; Kristy Heitzmann; Patty Weems; Bridgette Dugas; Day Hays; Kim Weinstein; Jennifer Carter and Kim Manieri.

Michelle Williams and Lynette Parker played Under-14 last year, while Kristin Reynolds and Shawanda Toups are new recruits.

The importance of good nutrition and conditioning, as well as basic skills practice were the thrust of this first two-hour practice.

Hancock looks for second win

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Traveling to Carriere, the Hancock North Central High School Hawks will take on the Pearl River Central Blue Devils Sept. 12.

Hancock Coach Irvin Favre said the Hawks have their work cut out for them, taking on the Blue Devils own their home field.

"This is one of our biggest rivalry games this season and PRC is always a tough team to go up against," he said.

Favre said although the Hawks have not been successful winning on the PRC home field in the past, he believes Hancock has the team win Friday.

"Basically this week we will just be trying to correct the mistakes from last week," he added.

It is really too early in the season to determine what major changes may be needed, Favre said.

He added that two areas being concentrated on in practice are offensive blocking and the kicking game.

"The offensive line just did not block as they should have and I don't think we could have won the game without Charles Burton," Favre added.

Burton scored three touchdowns in last Friday's game.

Favre also said the kicking game need a great deal of improvement.

"Our kicking game Friday was no good at all," he said.

"We also made too many penalties during the game," Favre stated.

"Eighty-five yards is too much to give up in penalties and we helped St. John keep possession a couple of time with yards gained on penalties," he added.

"We hope to give up a lot less yards on penalties in the PRC game," he said.

Favre had words of praise for the defense and the offensive backfield.

"Although shaky in the third quarter, the defense was pretty good the rest of the game," he said.

Defensive players Corey Blaize and Jess Dupree had good games, according to Favre.

He added all offensive backs had executed the wing-T plays well and complimented the performances of Donald Vince, Delano Lewis and Brett Favre.

Coach Favre said there still must be improvement over last week's performance to defeat Pearl River Central Friday.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Carey enters maiden soccer season with 1-1

GULFPORT—William Carey College has opened its first year of soccer with a win Sept. 9 over Swaggett Bible College in Baton Rouge, La. 8-0 and a loss to Belhaven College Sept. 4.

The team is based on Carey's Gulf Coast campus in Gulfport.

Leading the team is Coach Marc Leuchtman, formerly an assistant coach at Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe and Mercer University in Macon, Ga.

Leuchtman brings a vast soccer experience to Carey. A graduate of Piper High School in Broward Co., Fla., he went on to play at Columbia College, Columbia, Mo. and Mercer University.

While a player, he helped Columbia College to the NAIA playoffs, and rewrote the goalkeeping records at Mercer University.

Leuchtman holds the United States Soccer Federation "B" coaching license, the second highest license awarded on the national level. He has also successfully coached in youth and high school leagues.

A full roster of players has been recruited for this first season, including Jay Bosarge, Pascagoula; Gary Jacobs, Orangepark, Fla.; Majeed Kashghari, Saudi Arabia; John Keeley, Vicksburg; Ray Lovett, Baton Rouge, La.; Paul Lowery, Tallahassee, Fla.; John Phillips, Cassleberry, Fla.; Paul Ratliff, Vicksburg; Pat Sammis, Winter Park, Fla.; Bill Sargent, Ocean Springs; Tim Stringfellow, Pascagoula, and Gary Williams, Tallahassee, Fla.

Nine freshmen, one sophomore, and two juniors make up the Crusader team. Even though the players are young, most players come from strong high school soccer backgrounds.

Anyone interested in this new soccer program may contact Marc Leuchtman, Soccer Coach, Carey on the Coast, 01856 Beach Drive, Gulfport, MS 39507 - (601) 865-1500; or Bobby Halford, Athletic Director, William Carey College, Tuscan Avenue, Hattiesburg, MS 39401 - (601) 582-6110.

Wildcats maul Bobcats

POPLARVILLE—Jones Bobcat coach Sim Cooley was understandably upset after his Ellisville team was mauled by the Pearl River Wildcats 45-0 here Saturday night.

"I'm going to remember this," Cooley was quoted as saying to PRC assistant Bill Martin moments after the battle ended. "So am I." Martin responded. "So am I."

It will be a long time, if ever, when the Pearl River team, coaches or supporters will forget the Wildcats' complete domination of the Jones Bobcats here in '86.

However, the season is just beginning and the Wildcats have to immediately turn their attentions to Northeast. A team which also beat Jones and is also undefeated on this year.

"Northeast has a very good ballclub," said PRC head coach Mike Nelson. "We will have our hands full."

The Tigers from the North Division defeated the Bobcats 26-17 at Laurel in the season opener and then came back with a 29-13 win over the Holmes Bulldogs last week.

"They can score some points," Nelson said. "It will be a good test for our defense." The Wildcats can expect the Tigers to run a multiple offense.

"They will use the I formation and split backs and they even get into the Wishbone at times," said Bill Martin, PRC's defensive coordinator.

Martin said his defense would have to put pressure on quarterback Raymond Monica, a freshman out of Grayville, La. Monica's favorite receiver is Arnle Burchman, a freshman from Alcorn Central.

On defense the Wildcats expect the Tigers to run a wide-tackle six with variations.

The Northeast Tigers have not been so lucky against the Pearl River 'Cats over the years. In fact the two teams have met 17 times through the years and Northeast has won only one time. That was a 20-7 win way back in 1950.

Since that time it has been all Wildcats. Even when the Northeast Tigers were undefeated and ranked number one in the nation in 1980 the Wildcats won 27-17 to spoil the perfect year.

"We're not going to get too cocky," Nelson said. "Because there are just too many good teams out there. We will just take each week at a time."

The game is set for 7:30 p.m. in the Dobbie Holden Stadium. Gates will open at 6 p.m. and The Wildcat Club will start its tail-gate party around five in a reserved section in the home parking lot.

"Domination"

The key word Saturday night when Pearl River Junior College hosted Jones County here was domination. Complete and utter domination.

When the smoke had cleared and the dazed visitors - and the dazed hosts - had filed off to their respective locker rooms, the scoreboard read Pearl River 45, Jones 0.

The Wildcats whipped up on the Bobcats in every way possible in emphatically ending three years of frustration at Jones' hands. PRJC dominated the stat sheet as much as it dominated the scoreboard. Completely. Convincingly.

It was the Bobcats worst whipping since the 1973 PRC crew won 48-2.

It was the first time the usually potent Jones team has been held scoreless since Hinds did it 7-0 in 1979.

Then you have to go back to a 40-0 whitewash by Itawamba in 1975 to find another goose-egg.

Consider these numbers: PRJC's Wishbone attack rolled up 479 yards in total offense, including 375 yards on the ground. JCJC was fortunate to gain 137 yards, 46 on the ground and 91 through the airways.

The slaughter started innocently enough midway through the first period when Scott Favre capped on eight-play, 41-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge. Thurman Geathers highlighted the drive with consecutive runs of 10 and 11. Joey Tatum booted the PAT to give PRJC a 7-0 lead.

The Wildcats gave an indication of things to come early in the second quarter when they went 66 yards in five plays, the big play coming on a 51-yard pass play from alternate quarterback Gerald Tillman to Arthur Dozier of Hattiesburg that set PRJC up at the Jones 20. On the next play, Tillman found Anthony Robin-

DuPont supporting USM anniversary campaign

HATTIESBURG—E. I. DuPont deNemours and Company Inc., through its Pass Christian plant, has joined the Gulf Coast effort in support of the University of Southern Mississippi's 75th Anniversary Campaign.

Plant Manager Dave Settle visited the USM campus in Hattiesburg recently to present the company's check for $3,750 toward a campaign pledge of $7,500. The contribution will support a $7.5 million fundraising goal in celebration of the University's 75th anniversary.

USM has made great strides in an effort to bring education to the Mississippi Gulf Coast in recent years through its Gulf Park regional campus and courses offered at locations across the Coast.

Joseph Boardman is chairman of a Harrison County Committee working with USM's 75th Anniversary Campaign.

The Pass Christian plant also supports USM in another capacity. More than 170 USM graduates are employed by the company.

Bulldogs to face Itawamba

The Gulf Coast Junior College Bulldogs, their sputtering offense badly in need of tuning, play unbeaten Itawamba Thursday night at Fulton.

"It could be a disaster," said Bulldog Coach George Sekul. "Worse than last year when the Indians beat us 14-10 and snapped a 19-game winning streak."

Sekul said he is basing the prediction on his team's performance in their first two games. "Sure, we beat East Mississippi 19-7 in the season opener. But Itawamba manhandled them 35-10. Then last week we narrowly edged East Central 10-6."

Of the East Central game, Sekul said "things went from bad to worse." The Bulldogs led 3-0 at halftime on the strength of a field goal by kicker Chanthvane Adethsack of Mobile.

But the Lions booted field goals in the third and fourth quarters and held on to a 6-3 lead until the waning minutes of the game.

"We took the kickoff after their second field goal and moved 70 yards for a score, tallied by running back Wayne Rodolfich of Biloxi." One minute and 30 seconds remained on the clock.

"Going into the game I thought we had improved," said Sekul. "We hadn't. We had gotten worse. We gave East Central every opportunity to win. We were not blocking. There were too many turnovers at inopportune times—one interception and four fumbles, including one only a yard shy of a touchdown."

Itawamba is noted for a strong defense. Gulf Coast has yet to demonstrate that it can move the ball with any consistency. "You can't win if you can't score," said Sekul.

On the plus side of the ledger, Sekul praised kicker Adethsack for Scoring Gulf Coast's first points on a 37-yard field goal and for hitting the crossbars on another try from 50 yards.

And he had kind words for defensive back Donald McCorvey of Biloxi who intercepted a pass in the end zone to stop an East Central drive.

The coach said he plans no major lineup changes and that the starting quarterback will be Danny Kelley, a sophomore from d'Iberville.

son alone in the end zone for the score that made it 14-0 with 12:23 to play before halftime.

On the ensuing kickoff, Jones fumbled and Ransom Funchess recovered for PRJC. This time Jones held and Tatum kicked a 36-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their 17-0 halftime edge.

The real backbreakers came in the third period. Pearl River got the kickoff to open the second half at its own 24.

Geathers streaked 75 yards to the Jones one. Geathers got the pay off to give PRJC a 24-0 lead with 13:38 to play in the third period.

On the next series, Jones mustered its only serious threat of the night, driving to a first-and-goal at the PRJC one. On the first down, however, Jones was flagged for a five-yard infraction, and on the next play, Stanford Lewis intercepted a Chris Thornton pass in the end zone to quell the threat.

Set up at the 20, PRJC methodically drove down the field in 11 plays, with Terry Bruton getting the score from one yard out with 2:15 left in the third.

PRJC added two more TD's in the fourth period to close out the rout. Tillman hit Tracey Boyd on a pass from a yard out for one score and Jerry Rush raced 24 yards for the final tally of the night.

Pearl River, on a definite roll now at 2-0 overall and 1-0 in the South Division, will be back at home next week to face Northeast.

The Tigers from the North Division defeated the Bobcats 26-17 at Laurel in the season opener and then came back with a 29-13 win over the Holmes Bulldogs last week.

"They can score some points," Nelson said. "It will be a good test for our defense." The Wildcats can expect the Tigers to run a multiple offense.

"They will use the I formation and split backs and they even get into the Wishbone at times," said Bill Martin, PRC's defensive coordinator.

Martin said his defense would have to put pressure on quarterback Raymond Monica, a freshman out of Grayville, La. Monica's favorite receiver is Arnie Burchman, a freshman from Alcorn Central.

On defense the Wildcats expect the Tigers to run a wide-tackle six with variations.

The Northeast Tigers have not been so lucky against the Pearl River 'Cats over the years. In fact the two teams have met 17 times through the years and Northeast has won only one time. That was a 20-7 win way back in 1950.

Since that time it has been all Wildcats. Even when the Northeast Tigers were undefeated and ranked number one in the nation in 1980 the Wildcats won 27-17 to spoil the perfect year.

"We're not going to get too cocky," Nelson said. "Because there are just too many good teams out there. We will just take each week at a time."

The game is set for 7:30 p.m. in the Dobbie Holden Stadium. Gates will open at 6 p.m. and The Wildcat Club will start its tail-gate party around five in a reserved section in the home parking lot.

"Domination"

The key word Saturday night when Pearl River Junior College hosted Jones County here was domination.

Complete and utter domination. When the smoke had cleared and the dazed visitors - and the dazed hosts - had filed off to their respective locker rooms, the scoreboard read Pearl River 45, Jones 0.

The Wildcats whipped up on the Bobcats in every way possible in emphatically ending three years of frustration at Jones' hands. PRJC dominated the stat sheet as much as it dominated the scoreboard. Completely. Convincingly.

It was the Bobcats worst whipping since the 1973 PRC crew won 48-2. It was the first time the usually potent Jones team has been held scoreless since Hinds did it 7-0 in 1979.

Then you have to go back to a 40-0 whitewash by Itawamba in 1975 to find another goose-egg.

Consider these numbers: PRJC's Wishbone attack rolled up 479 yards in total offense, including 375 yards on the ground. JCJC was fortunate to gain 137 yards, 46 on the ground and 91 through the airways.

The slaughter started innocently enough midway through the first period when Scott Favre capped on eight-play, 41-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge. Thurman Geathers highlighted the drive with consecutive runs of 10 and 11. Joey Tatum booted the PAT to give PRJC a 7-0 lead.

The Wildcats gave an indication of things to come early in the second quarter when they went 66 yards in five plays, the big play coming on a 51-yard pass play from alternate quarterback Gerald Tillman to Arthur Dozier of Hattiesburg that set PRJC up at the Jones 20. On the next play, Tillman found Anthony Robin-

DuPont supporting USM anniversary campaign

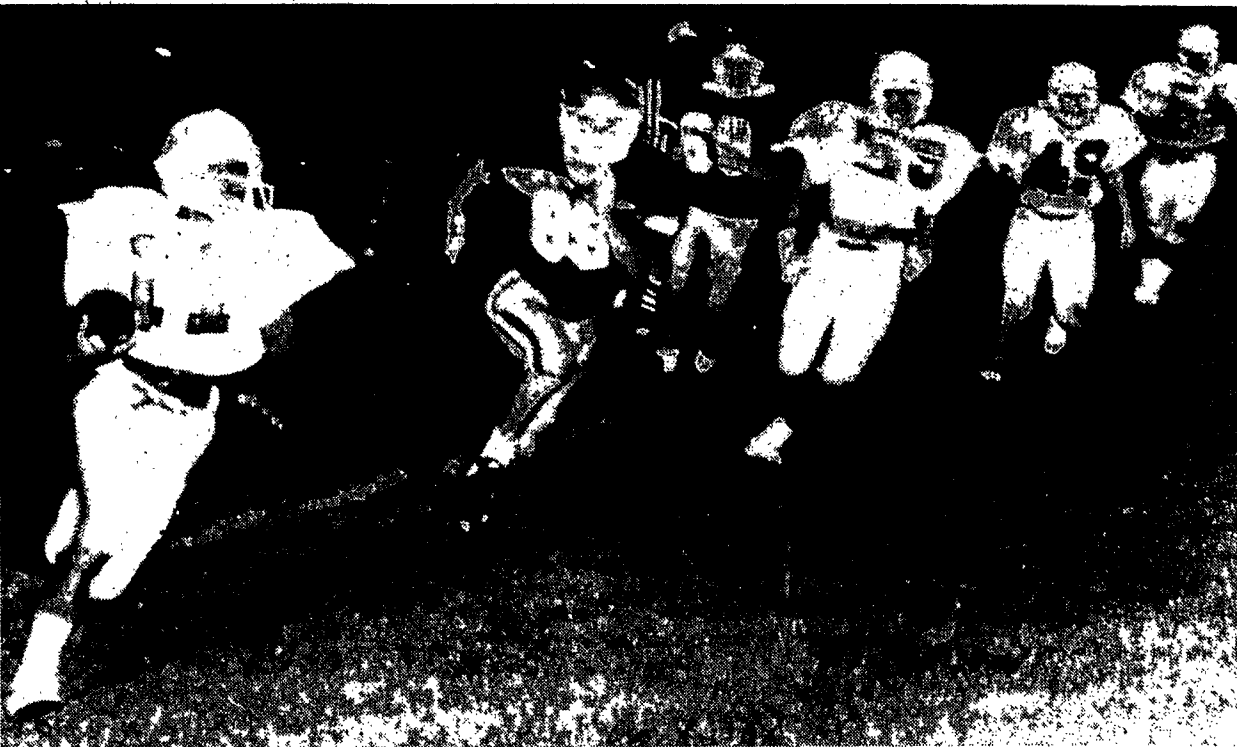

HATTIESBURG—E. I. DuPont deNemours and Company Inc., through its Pass Christian plant, has joined the Gulf Coast effort in support of the University of Southern Mississippi's 75th Anniversary Campaign.

Plant Manager Dave Settle visited the USM campus in Hattiesburg recently to present the company's check for $3,750 toward a campaign pledge of $7,500. The contribution will support a $7.5 million fund-raising goal in celebration of the University's 75th anniversary.

USM has made great strides in an effort to bring education to the Mississippi Gulf Coast in recent years through its Gulf Park regional campus and courses offered at locations across the Coast.

Joseph Boardman is chairman of a Harrison County Committee working with USM's 75th Anniversary Campaign.

The Pass Christian plant also supports USM in another capacity. More than 170 USM graduates are employed by the company.

Bulldogs to face Itawamba

The Gulf Coast Junior College Bulldogs, their sputtering offense badly in need of tuning, play unbeaten Itawamba Thursday night at Fulton.

"It could be a disaster," said Bulldog Coach George Sekul. "Worse than last year when the Indians beat us 14-10 and snapped a 19-game winning streak."

Sekul said he is basing the prediction on his team's performance in their first two games. "Sure, we beat East Mississippi 19-7 in the season opener. But Itawamba manhandled them 35-10. Then last week we narrowly edged East Central 10-6."

Of the East Central game, Sekul said "things went from bad to worse." The Bulldogs led 3-0 at halftime on the strength of a field goal by kicker Chanthvane Adethsack of Mobile.

But the Lions booted field goals in the third and fourth quarters and held on to a 6-3 lead until the waning minutes of the game.

"We took the kickoff after their second field goal and moved 70 yards for a score, tallied by running back Wayne Rodolfich of Biloxi." One minute and 30 seconds remained on the clock.

"Going into the game I thought we had improved," said Sekul. "We hadn't. We had gotten worse. We gave East Central every opportunity to win. We were not blocking. There were too many turnovers at inopportune times—one interception and four fumbles, including one only a yard shy of a touchdown."

Itawamba is noted for a strong defense. Gulf Coast has yet to demonstrate that it can move the ball with any consistency. "You can't win if you can't score," said Sekul.

On the plus side of the ledger, Sekul praised kicker Adethsack for Scoring Gulf Coast's first points on a 37-yard field goal and for hitting the crossbars on another try from 50 yards.

And he had kind words for defensive back Donald McCorvey of Biloxi who intercepted a pass in the end zone to stop an East Central drive.

The coach said he plans no major lineup changes and that the starting quarterback will be Danny Kelley, a sophomore from d'Iberville.

On the ensuing kickoff, Jones fumbled and Ransom Funchess recovered for PRJC. This time Jones held and Tatum kicked a 36-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their 17-0 halftime edge.

The real backbreakers came in the third period. Pearl River got the kickoff to open the second half at its own 24.

Geathers streaked 75 yards to the Jones one. Geathers got the pay off to give PRJC a 24-0 lead with 13:38 to play in the third period.

On the next series, Jones mustered its only serious threat of the night, driving to a first-and-goal at the PRJC one. On the first down, however, Jones was flagged for a five-yard infraction, and on the next play, Stanford Lewis intercepted a Chris Thornton pass in the end zone to quell the threat.

Set up at the 20, PRJC methodically drove down the field in 11 plays, with Terry Bruton getting the score from one yard out with 2:15 left in the third.

PRJC added two more TD's in the fourth period to close out the rout. Tillman hit Tracey Boyd on a pass from a yard out for one score and Jerry Rush raced 24 yards for the final tally of the night.

Pearl River, on a definite roll now at 2-0 overall and 1-0 in the South Division, will be back at home next week to face Northeast.

Hancock looks for second win

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Traveling to Carriere, the Hancock North Central High School Hawks will take on the Pearl River Central Blue Devils Sept. 12.

Hancock Coach Irvin Favre said the Hawks have their work cut out for them, taking on the Blue Devils own their home field.

"This is one of our biggest rivalry games this season and PRC is always a tough team to go up against," he said.

Favre said although the Hawks have not been successful winning on the PRC home field in the past, he believes Hancock has the team win Friday.

"Basically this week we will just be trying to correct the mistakes from last week," he added.

It is really too early in the season to determine what major changes may be needed, Favre said.

He added that two areas being concentrated on in practice are offensive blocking and the kicking game.

"The offensive line just did not block as they should have and I don't think we could have won the game without Charles Burton," Favre added.

Burton scored three touchdowns in last Friday's game.

Favre also said the kicking game need a great deal of improvement.

"Our kicking game Friday was no good at all," he said.

"We also made too many penalties during the game," Favre stated.

"Eighty-five yards is too much to give up in penalties and we helped St. John keep possession a couple of time with yards gained on penalties," he added.

"We hope to give up a lot less yards on penalties in the PRC game," he said.

Favre had words of praise for the defense and the offensive backfield.

"Although shaky in the third quarter, the defense was pretty good the rest of the game," he said.

Defensive players Corey Blaize and Jess Dupree had good games, according to Favre.

He added all offensive backs had executed the wing-T plays well and complimented the performances of Donald Vince, Delano Lewis and Brett Favre.

Coach Favre said there still must be improvement over last week's performance to defeat Pearl River Central Friday.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Carey enters maiden soccer season with 1-1

GULFPORT—William Carey College has opened its first year of soccer with a win Sept. 9 over Swaggert Bible College in Baton Rouge, La. 8-0 and a loss to Belhaven College Sept. 4.

The team is based on Carey's Gulf Coast campus in Gulfport.

Leading the team is Coach Marc Leuchtmann, formerly an assistant coach at Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe and Mercer University in Macon, Ga.

Leuchtmann brings a vast soccer experience to Carey. A graduate of Piper High School in Broward Co., Fla., he went on to play at Columbia College, Columbia, Mo. and Mercer University.

While a player, he helped Columbia College to the NIAA playoffs, and rewrote the goalkeeping records at Mercer University.

Leuchtmann holds the United States Soccer Federation "B" coaching license, the second highest license awarded on the national level. He has also successfully coached in youth and high school leagues.

A full roster of players has been recruited for this first season, including Jay Bosarge, Pascagoula; Gary Jacobs, Orangeburg, Fla.; Majeed Kashghari, Saudi Arabia; John Keeley, Vicksburg; Ray Lovett, Baton Rouge, La.; Paul Lowery, Tallahassee, Fla.; John Phillips, Cassleberry, Fla.; Paul Ratliff, Vicksburg; Pat Sammis, Winter Park, Fla.; Bill Sargent, Ocean Springs; Tim Stringfellow, Pascagoula, and Gary Williams, Tallahassee, Fla.

Nine freshmen, one sophomore, and two juniors make up the Crusader team. Even though the players are young, most players come from strong high school soccer backgrounds.

Anyone interested in this new soccer program may contact Marc Leuchtmann, Soccer Coach, Carey on the Coast, 01856 Beach Drive, Gulfport, MS 39507 - (601) 865-1500; or Bobby Halford, Athletic Director, William Carey College, Tuscan Avenue, Hattiesburg, MS 39401 - (601) 582-6110.

Wildcats maul Bobcats

POPLARVILLE—Jones Bobcat coach Sim Cooley was understandably upset after his Ellisville team was mauled by the Pearl River Wildcats 45-0 here Saturday night.

"I'm going to remember this," Cooley was quoted as saying to PRC assistant Bill Martin moments after the battle ended. "So am I!" Martin responded. "So am I."

It will be a long time, if ever, when the Pearl River team, coaches or supporters will forget the Wildcats complete domination of the Jones Bobcats here in '86.

However, the season is just beginning and the Wildcats have to immediately turn their attentions to Northeast. A team which also beat Jones and is also undefeated on this year.

"Northeast has a very good ballclub," said PRC head coach Mike Nelson. "We will have our hands full."

The Tigers from the North Division defeated the Bobcats 26-17 at Laurel in the season opener and then came back with a 29-13 win over the Holmes Bulldogs last week.

"They can score some points," Nelson said. "It will be a good test for our defense." The Wildcats can expect the Tigers to run a multiple offense.

USM announces new football traffic plans

HATTIESBURG—University of Southern Mississippi Department of Public Safety Director Howard Miller and athletic director Bill McLellan, in conjunction with the Hattiesburg Police Department and the Mississippi Highway Patrol, have announced that traffic patterns will be altered for USM football games to facilitate a better traffic flow both to and from the games.

Jim Tullos, assistant DPS director of USM said, "We hope the fans coming to the games, particularly the first one, will take a moment to look over the new traffic regulations before arriving. There are some significant changes that have been made, and if our fans are familiar with them, it will save them both time and trouble in getting to the parking area they desire."

These changes will take effect at 4 p.m. on game days, and fans arriving before that time will not be affected. A summary of these changes follows:

Service Drive (between Hardy St.

and 4th St.) will be open to northbound traffic only with access from Hardy St.

Stadium Drive will be southbound to football permit parking only. Northbound traffic on Service Drive from Hardy Street that does not have football permit parking (Century Club, etc.) will be turned onto Felder Place (south end of Panhellenic dormitory) to public parking areas.

At the intersection of southbound Service Drive and West Fourth Street, there will be no left turns allowed.

Fourth Street will be reduced to only one east bound lane between Stadium Drive and Service Drive.

No turns will be allowed from Highway 49 onto Service Drive (West) between Hardy Street and Fourth Street except for football permit parking (Century Club, etc.). Tullos offered some helpful hints for persons seeking public parking. "The easiest way to reach the public parking areas will be to enter the campus west of Sunset Drive.

The area next to Reed Green Coliseum known as Pride Field offers a lot of free and convenient parking, as well as the drivers education parking lot, which is paved, and the USM motor pool parking lot (on the north side of Fourth Street).

All of these areas are close to the stadium and offer easy access and exit. I would suggest that no traffic turn onto Service Drive from Hardy Street unless they have permit parking passes, because they will be diverted onto the main campus."

Another change that will affect permit parking only is that no parking will be allowed on the old intramural field (known as the Century Club parking lot on game days) until 12 noon on game days.

Fans who come to the game the night before will be permitted to park on Service Drive adjoining the field and move onto the lot at noon on Saturday.

Teal season opens Sept. 13

JACKSON—Mississippi waterfowl hunters will get off their first shots of the season this coming Saturday, Sept. 13 when the state's special nine-day teal season opens.

The season closes Sept. 21. Blue-winged and green-winged teal are some of the earliest waterfowl to migrate through Mississippi on their way south to their wintering grounds.

State conservation officials are reminding hunters that only teal are legal birds during this special season.

Shooting hours are sunrise until sunset. The daily bag limit is four, and the possession limit is eight, with no possession limit on opening day.

Hunters 16 years of age and older are required to purchase a $7.50 federal duck stamp. A valid hunting license is also needed. In addition, hunters between 16 and 65 years old must have a $2 state duck stamp.

As with hunting any federally protected migratory game bird, hunters must have their shotguns plugged and incapable of holding more than three shells.

Teal are relatively small birds, and known by hunters for their twisting, turning, high-speed flight across open, shallow water areas, according to Department of Wildlife Conservation biologists.

Hunters may increase their shooting chances if they hunt around the shallow water edges of lakes, ponds, rice fields, reservoirs, and large rivers.

Teal feed on aquatic plants in these areas, biologists say. Advanced scouting of a particular area pays off.

First-time teal hunters can usually identify teal by looking for the birds in small, tight, fast-moving flocks. At close range blue-winged teal are small, dark-brown ducks with a sizeable light-blue patch on the upper leading edge of the wings. They usually respond readily to decoys.

NHF Day Sept. 27

America's hunters and fishermen will again be honored this year during the celebration of National Hunting and Fishing Day on Saturday, Sept. 27.

Traditionally held on the fourth Saturday of September, National Hunting and Fishing Day honors hunters and fishermen for the many contributions they have made to the conservation of fish and wildlife in the United States.

One celebration of NHF Day will be held at the Singing River Mall in Gautier. Various state and local groups will feature displays ranging from taxidermy to a free public indoor shooting range, to a live 12-foot alligator.

SPORTS from the Pressbox

Steve Carlton, the only four-time Cy Young Award winner and the 10th winningest pitcher in Major League history, was released recently by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Phillies President Bill Giles said the 41-year-old Carlton, who has refused for years to speak with the media, has told him he is convinced he can still pitch in the Major Leagues and is hopeful another team will sign him.

Carlton compiled a 318-223 record in 22 Major League seasons, making him one of only four active 300-game winners and stands at 241-161 in 14 seasons with the Phillies. Carlton, known as Lefty among baseball fans, has struck out 3,981 batters in his career which is second behind Nolan Ryan on the all-time strikeout list.

This year Carlton has had five straight poor performances compiling a 4-8 record, allowing 102 hits in 83 innings, with 61 strikeouts and 44 walks. What's worse is the fact that in his last 20 1/2 innings he has yielded 37 hits, 16 walks and 25 earned runs.

CLOSING IN—Bay High Tiger Wayne Karl, center, closes in on a Stone County ballcarrier in action from last week's game, in which the Tigers were defeated 13-11. Bay High host Pass Christian Friday, with the Pirates also looking for their first win. Karl is expected to be one of the Tigers' starting defensive linebackers this week. Sept. 13 - Alabama at Birmingham, Hyatt, 10 a.m.-noon, game time 1:30 p.m.

USM Volleyball to open Sept. 12

HATTIESBURG— Twenty-seven matches, including a tri-match, a quad-match and three tournaments highlight the 1986 University of Southern Mississippi women's volleyball schedule released by head coach Helen Grant and athletic director Bill McLellan.

Grant's Lady Eagles will open the season Sept. 12-13 in the Northeast Louisiana Classic and end regular season play in the conference tournament at Virginia Tech Nov. 20-22.

USM will play each Metro team once in addition to playing home and home matches with Tulane, Mississippi College, Mississippi State, Jackson State, Southeastern Louisiana, Southwestern Louisiana, Nicholls State, New Orleans and Livingston.

"The schedule is not as full as last year," said Grant. "We will be playing about 10 fewer matches."

In addition to playing Louisiana State once, the Lady Eagles will compete in a tri-match with South Alabama and Montevallo and host a quad-match with Tulane, Virginia Tech and South Alabama.

USM will play in the Mississippi State tournament that includes the host team in addition to USM, Southeastern Louisiana and Tennessee Tech.

In the season-opening tournament at Northeast Louisiana, USM will play Michigan State.

"It will be a tough schedule," said Grant. "We should end up with a good overall record."

The complete schedule follows:
SEPTEMBER
12-13 - at Northeast La. Classic; 16 - at Mississippi College; 18 - Southwestern La., home; 21 - Nicholls State, home; 22 - at Southeastern La.; 24 - at Livingston; 26-27 - at Mississippi State Tournament; 28 - Florida State, home; 30 - at Tulane.

OCTOBER
1 - Jackson State, home; 3 - at Memphis State; 8 - UNO, home; 10 - at Louisville; 11 - at Cincinnati; 14 - Southeastern La., home; 17-18 - at South Alabama Tri-Match; 20 - Livingston, home; 22 - Mississippi State, home; 24-25 - USM Quad-Match, home; 27 - Mississippi College, home; 28 - at LSU; 30 - South Carolina, Home.

NOVEMBER
4 - at UNO; 7 - at Southwestern La.; 8 - at Nicholls State; 10 - at Jackson State; 13 - at Mississippi State; 20-22 - at Metro Conference Tournament, Blacksburg, Va.

KEEPING FIT

Why are you reading this article? For that matter, why do you think a diet or exercise book is among the ten bestsellers week after week? All of us are concerned about our weight, but besides reading about it, are we actually doing something about it?

The American Heart Association estimates that 40 percent of the population is at least 15 pounds overweight. The typical American man is 20 to 30 pounds over his ideal weight; the typical woman, 15 to 30 pounds. Ten percent of grade-schoolers and 20 to 30 percent of high-schoolers are heavier than they should be.

Most of us are concerned about our weight for cosmetic reasons. We'd like to look better. Or we think we'd be happier if we lost some weight. We should, however, be more concerned about our weight for health reasons. According to major epidemiological studies, the risk of disease, disability, and premature death rises along with weight. In a group of a hundred people of normal weight, ninety can expect to live to be 60; fifty will survive to 70; thirty will live into their 80s and beyond. But only sixty of every one hundred obese individuals will make it to age 60; thirty will live another decade; no more than ten will live to be 80.

Obesity increases the risk of high blood pressure (hypertension) three times and the danger of diabetes four times. Fat adults are twice as likely to suffer heart attacks and three times as likely to die as a result. They're far more susceptible to gout, respiratory problems, blood clots, varicose veins, hemorrhoids, cancer of the colon, uterus, breast, and prostate, arthritis, gall bladder disease, liver disease and intestinal disorders.

Why not devote the next year of your life to finally losing that excess weight and keeping it off? It could save you 10, maybe 20, years later on.

In a seaside community like ours, it's essential for children to learn to swim — Clyde LeBlanc

With many three-year-olds achieving aquatic skills and two two-and-a-half-year-olds—Kristy Stephens and Elizabeth Grussendorf—learning to swim, Le Blanc's School of Swimming completed its 11th summer by issuing 100 certificates this year.

Star swimmer of the summer was Ryan Schaefer who, after five summers of swimming lessons, merited the Le Blanc's Junior Life Saving Certificate.

In addition to Helen and Clyde Le Blanc, owners and operators of the Bay St. Louis school, other members of the teaching faculty were Cathy Alliston, Elise McCollister, Jill Powers and Sabrina Kersanac. Substitute teachers were Melissa Kersanac, Melanie Henley and Joe Ziegler.

Other certificate winners for the first session were:

Advanced— Jaime Schaefer, Tracy Collins and Tessa Metzler.

Introductory Steps Advanced— Rachel Pope and Paige Harder.

Intermediate— Erin Moon, Michael Lafontaine, Jennifer Thomas, Liam Fitzpatrick, Bernard Sy, Chintan Patel, Lisa Pope, Michael Benvenuti, Jessica Parker and Johnnie Dawson.

Introductory Steps Intermediate— Holly Kirby, Berniece Sy, Kristy Benvenuti, Kyle Kidd and Matthew Remel.

Christie Klein, Jace Bourgeois, Kelvin Oliver, Margot McDowell, Dawn Lewis, Erica Caldwell and Taaya Dawson.

Introductory Steps Beginners— Whitney Hamm, Jennifer Edgecombe, Danah Malone, Robert Sabbatini, Lance Pope, Garrett Garcia, Marl Cerisier, Alex Rotundo, Ronnie Lacoste, Natalie Field, Billy McLain and Adam Noble.

For the second session certificate winners include:

Advanced— John Genin and Rachel Pope.

Introductory Steps Advanced— Lisa Pope and Anna Pavolini.

Intermediate— Adrian Carter, Chris Genin, Joe Marengo and Mury Burrell.

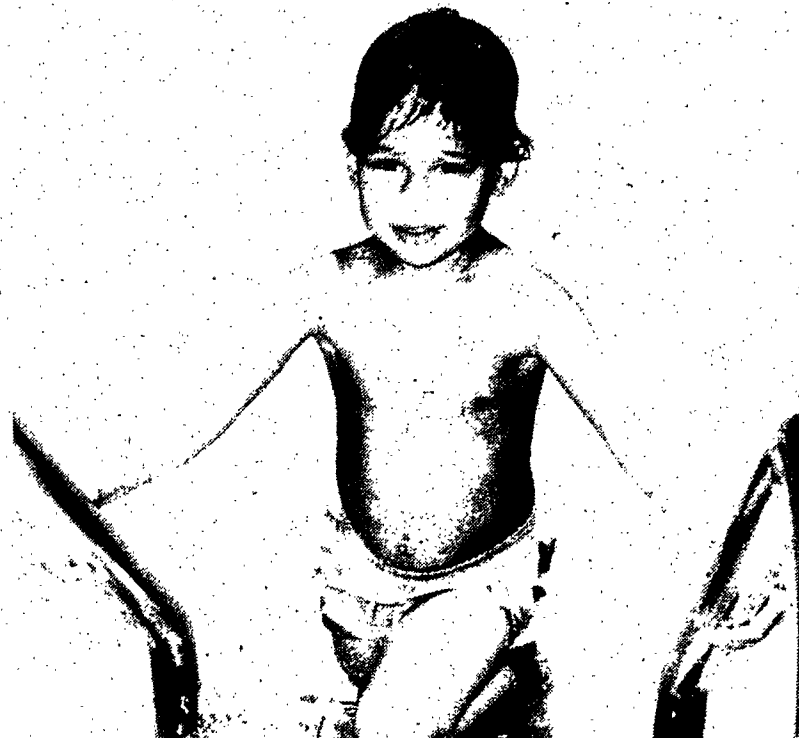

Introductory Steps Intermediate— Stephanie Stephens, Erika

Englehart, Shay Coss, Andy Grussendorf, Hugh Flores and Christopher Estrade.

Beginners— Kristy Stephens, Hayes Stephens, Jami North, Kevin Estrade, Tammy Rudder, Shaun Edwards, Brittany Lee, Eddie Cook, Trey Randall, Elizabeth Grussendorf, Jeff Cecerchi, Hope Watkins, Rocky Marengo, Amy Lafontaine, Felix Pavolini, Ashley Piazza, Lucinda Perniciaro, Shala Constance, Miaay Durbin, Allison Walsh and Kelly Singleton.

Introductory Steps Beginners— Travis Baum, Julie Cecerchi and Nathan Durbin.

The youngest students were Kristy Stephens and Elizabeth Grussendorf, both two-and-a-half years old, while the oldest was Kelly Singleton, 25.

Billy Kenny climbs the ladder for another dive.

KICK YOUR FEET—Instructor-student pairs include Elise McCollister and Elizabeth Grussendorf, Cathy Alliston and Julie Cecerchi, and Jill Powers and Sabrina Kersanac.

Chris Schaumburg saves Clyde LeBlanc with the safety pole while Sabrina Kersanac instructs.

Taking a breather during a session are Sissie McLain, Billy McLain, Professor Clyde LeBlanc, Beverly Sy and Berniece Sy.

Junior High introduces French, algebra

The 1986-87 school year at Bay Junior High opened with two new course offerings for eighth grade students—French and Algebra I.

Administrative-faculty discussions last Spring explored the possibility of providing more academic opportunities for the students.

W.J. Cameron, principal, directed Mrs. Bonnie Allison, the school's guidance counselor, to locate an appropriate placement tool for students wishing to enter Algebra I.

The "Orleans-Hannah Algebra Prognosis Test" was chosen. This year's Algebra I class, under the guidance of R. A. Wilson, is limited to the 24 students who placed highest on the prognosis test.

As a result of this program, these Algebra I students will have the opportunity to take more advanced math courses when they enter high school.

The educational philosophy of the French program was summed up by Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, instructor, who stated, "Today, worldwide travel and communication are attainable for a growing number of Americans."

"This ease of travel opens the door to the concept of 'world citizenship,' which requires an awareness and understanding of other cultures and languages. We Americans, on the whole, are ill-prepared for functioning within a culture other than our own."

"Too often I have heard Americans say of foreign guests, 'They're in America...why don't they speak English?' Yet, these same people think nothing of visiting another country without making the slightest effort to speak the language of their hosts."

"Becoming a better 'world citizen' requires the same nurturing that we give our children to become 'good Americans.' It is a matter of education," Edwards feels.

"This is a beginning. It does not aim for fluency. It offers stepping stones which will lead the students into an appreciation and acceptance of another culture—and herein lies the foundation for a new generation of bilingual Americans."

Eighth-grade students enrolled in the French program on a voluntary basis.

Stanislaus presents senior rings

Seventy-one seniors representing the 133rd graduating class of St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, received senior class rings at a special mass celebration recently in the school chapel.

Father William Kelley, SVD of St. Augustine Seminary in Bay St. Louis was celebrant, assisted by senior faculty members Brother Bennet, SC; Mrs. Dot Kersanac; Brother Joseph Donovan, SC; Dale Moran, and James Thriffliey.

The ceremony was attended by parents and friends of the seniors and faculty members.

Brother William Leimbach, SC, master of ceremonies, welcomed the seniors and their guests. Brother Paul Montero, SC, principal, distributed the rings, assisted by Brother Noel, SC, dean of students, and Michael Ryan, academic assistant principal.

In a short address to the seniors, Brother Paul stressed the significance of wearing the senior ring as a symbol and the importance of maintaining the rich tradition of St. Stanislaus.

The following seniors received rings: Clark Adams, Milton Ailes, Jay Artigues, Rob Betcher, Robert Blum, Joey Boudin, Blake Boudreaux, Steve Bois, David Bourgeois, Josh Bowles, Chuck Breath, Jake Brown, Chris Bullen, E. J. Burghardt, Kerry Burzelleri, James Caldwell, Cody Cenac, Scott Comeaux, Arthur Cormier, Hank Daman, Ron Dantin, David Denson and David Diboll.

Also, Davis Dicharry, Clinton Edwards, Scott Fabacher, Ward Faulk, Sean Godley, Roy Golmon, Ivy Harris, Darren Hazeur, Robert Homes, Will Homes, John Keller, Sean Kenney, Billy Kimbrell, Grant Kohnke, Jose Lau, Marco Lau, John Lazzara, Greg Legendre, Tommy Lenz, Jack Lightfoot, Mark Margiotta, Tom Masson, Joie Matus, Robert Maynard, Jason McEwen, Steve Montagnet, John Montz and Tom Quave.

And, Billy Renaudin, Keith Robinson, Colin Schmit, Louis Schuff, Jack Simpson, Frank Skiles, Sean Stakelum, Roland Sternfels, Carter Stewart, John Swider, Vincent Talazac, Mark Taylor, Joel Thames, Chandler Viator, Chris Vizzini, Trey Weil, Joe Welsh, Steven White, John Winters and Matt Young.
